TO REST AT ST. JOE

Remains of Ben King Brought Here on Their Way Home.

LIE AT THE PRESS CLUB.

A Great Throng of Friends Look Upon His Face.

Two Bits of His Verse Showing He Was Not Entirely Devoted to the Humorous.

The remains of Ben King, the humorist, arrived at the Dearborn Street Station from Bowling Green, Ky., early yesterday morning and were received at the depot by a delegation from the Press Club.

The body was taken to Jordan's undertaking rooms, and at 1 o'clock p. m. was removed to the Press Club rooms, where at 2:30 o'clock funeral services were held. About 400 were present.

The services were opened by the Imperial Quartet's rendition of "Abide with Me." Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones spoke of the influence exerted by the dead man, dwelling on the value to the world of a sunny disposition. The quartet sang "Lead, Kindly Light," after which Leroy Armstrong spoke on behalf of the Press Club. Charles Banks, on behalf of the Ground Hog Club; Charles Perkins, from the Whitechapel Club; Earnest McGaffney, John McGovern, John McEnnis, and others made short speeches, and Colonel L. H. Ayne read elegies by Captain Jack Crawford and Nixon Waterman. Rev. Dr. Davis, of the Congregational Church of St. Joe, Mich., delivered the funeral sermon.

The services were closed by the intonation of the Lord's Prayer by the Imperial Quartet.

Floral tributes were received from many sources. The handsomest pieces were from Bowling Green, H. W. Thearle, of the Lyceum Bureau, and the Press Club of Chicago.

Fer I live once agin in the long summer time,
And my soul it seems caught in old time's undertow

And I'm driftin' agin down the "River St. Joe."

And tomorrow beside the "tranquil old river St. Joe" he wrote so lovingly of Ben King will be laid to rest.

SO FAR as we know, this young man, now so suddenly dead, was the drollest mimic and gentlest humorist of our region. He existed as the welcome and mirthful shadow of conventional and tiresome things.

He began as the expositor of "The Maiden's Prayer" on the piano, where each accented note was flat or sharp, and the music flowed rapidly, or over great difficulties, as the score might determine. He arose, and looking half-witted, recited with unapproachable modesty the stammering delight which he would feel if he could be by Her! He frowsled his hair and became Paderewski, who forthwith fell upon the piano tooth and nail, tore up the track, derailed the symphony, went down stairs and shook the furnace, fainted at the pedals, and was carried out rigid by supers—the greatest pianist of any age. He wrote "If I Should Die Tonight"—a parody that was accepted as the true original, the sun, the center of the great If-I-should-die-tonight system of thought and poetry. He wrote the poet's lament—that there was nothing to eat but food, and nowhere to come but off. The artists of the newspaper world generously sprang to his side; they placed him pictorially before the people, and determined, with almost prophetic spirit, that our small circle should not alone dwell with undiminishing laughter upon the gambols of Ben King. He was coldly, then not coldly, then warmly received by the church fairs, the clubs, and the Elks, where he got a supper—if any were left. At last he charged a small sum for appearing publicly and this sum was rapidly enlarging and his fortune was in sight, when the hotel porter found him dead in his room at Bowling Green, Kentucky.

During the years we knew him, he never spoke to us in a disparaging way concerning any other person, and unless Paderewski's comb was ruffled by Ben's exhibition of hair and haste in piano playing, no parody, or perk, or prank of Ben King ever depended for its success upon the wounding of another creature's feelings.

We all accounted him a genius, and while we could not guess what he would do next, we awaited his performances with complacence, laughing as if we owned him and had ourselves ordered his latest jeu d'esprit.

We deplored the untimely moment of his end ; we held beautiful, solemn and impressive memorial services over his body, with music by the sweet singers whom he had loved when he was alive, and touching words by ministers of the gospel ; we buried him affectionately, as one who could least be spared from our circle ; and as we were the witnesses of what he did, we now charge ourselves to be the testimonies of his rare talents.

Chicago, Oct. 11, 1894.

JOHN MCGOVERN.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN KING, JR. was born at St. Joseph, Michigan, March 17, 1857, and died at Bowling Green, Kentucky, April 7, 1894. He was married Nov. 27, 1883 to Aseneth Belle Latham, of St. Joseph, Michigan, by Professor David Swing at his residence in Chicago. The wife and two sons, Bennett Latham King, aged nine, and Spencer P. King, aged five, survive him.

While yet a child, music came to Ben King as an inspiration. His infant fingers touched the keys of a piano and a ripple of notes, strange and sweet, startled his parents into the consciousness that a great talent had been given unto him. How odd a boy he was—no one understood him. On the edge of the marsh he would sit during hours at a time, under the spell of the weird music amid the rushes. As he grew up, lacking the instincts that make men successful in business, he was pronounced a failure—not by those who had warmed themselves in the glow of his poetic nature, but by the man who believed that to turn over a dime and thereby to make a dollar of it, was the most gracious faculty that could be bestowed upon a member of the human family. But when Ben King died, St. Joseph became more widely known in one day than hundreds of excursions and a thousand orchards had served to advertise it in the past. On that April morning, people living in the far East and the far West asked the question: "Where is St. Joseph?"

Ben King was not only a man of music; he was a poet, a gentle satirist and a humorist of the highest order. Every company was brightened by his coming, every man felt better for having heard his quaint remarks. There was about him a droll, a charming irresponsibility—a Thomas Hood from Michigan.

I find, as I have found for the fiftieth time while striving to write these lines, that I am still too much under the shock caused by his death to write dispassionately of him. My judgment, the common sense that one should bring to bear upon such a subject, is obscured by the vivid picture of an early morning; and down a dark hallway I still hear a violent knocking—and then comes a throbbing silence and out of that silence comes an excited whisper—"Ben King is dead."

Ben King's Verse

J. R. R.

No laurel wreath will crown your brow
Dear Ben!

Great dreamer, the great world gave
To you, such meed of praise.
What then.

Is fame a necessary thing?
For many days

you were a king
Of wits and jolly men,
To those who knew
your worth and power.
And you!

you ^{dreamed} ~~thought~~ the hour
Well spent

That added to
This merriment.

And could you sing
Tonight, ^{you} ~~with~~ the theme
Would be the tatters of some dull

day-dream

R. R.

Ben King's Verse

IF I SHOULD DIE

If I should die tonight -
And you should come to my cold corpse and say,
Weeping and heartsick o'er my lifeless clay—

If I should die tonight,
And you should come in deepest grief and woe—
And say: "Here's that ten dollars that I owe,"
I might arise in my large, white cravat
And say, "What's that?"

If I should die tonight
And you should come to my cold corpse and kneel,
Clasping my bier to show the grief you feel,

I say, if I should die tonight
And you should come to me, and there and then
Just even hint 'bout payin' me that ten,

I might arise the while
But I'd drop dead again.

SAY WHEN, AND SAY IT

Write me a poem that hasn't been writ,
Sing me a song that hasn't been sung yet,
String out a strain that hasn't been strung,
And ring me a chime that hasn't been rung yet.

Paint me a picture but leave out the paint,
Pile up a pile of old scenes of my schoolery,
Leave me alone ; I would fain meditate
And mourn o'er the moments I lost in tomfoolery.

Tell me a tale that dropped out of a star,
Push me a pun that is pungent, not earthy.
I must have something sharp, strident, and strong
To eke out a laugh or be moderately mirthy.

Give me a love that has never been loved,
Not knowing the glance of the bold and unwary.
A cherub abreast with the saints up above,
And I'll get along and be passably merry.

But come on the fly to me, come on the jump,
Don't hang around on the outskirts and walk to me ;
Throw out your chest well, and hold up your head ;
Say when, and say it, or else don't you talk to me.

GITTIN' MY SOUL INTER SHAPE

Reckon de angel what rolled 'way de stone,
An' let de good shepherd escape,
Some day 'll fly down to dis prison ob sin
An' lib'rate all dat's prepahed to come in ;
So I'se gittin' my soul inter shape,
Gittin my soul inter shape, fo' yo' see
Hit's a mighty big stone dat's layin' on me,
Mighty big stone ! Yes, indeedy !

I hope de good angel will hab heaps o' strength,
Or else bring old Sampson along,
Kase the sin on my soul's mo' 'en fo'ty foot deep ;
Yo' see, I bin one ob dese wanderin' sheep,
An' hit's gwine ter need somebody strong,
Gwine ter need somebody strong, doan yo' see ;
Hit's a mighty big weight dat's a restin' on me.
Pow'ful big weight ! Yes, indeedy !

I'se gittin' my soul inter shape fo' de day
When Peter 'gins takin' 'is toll ;
Ready ter lay down my burden an' rest,
Ready ter take up de cross ob de blest,
Ready ter entah de fol'.
Gittin' my soul inter shape, doan yo' see ;
Dar's a big load ob sin bin restin' on me,
Big load ob sin ! Yes, indeedy !
Yes, indeedy !

EVOLUTION

We seem to exist in a hazardous time,
 Driftin' along here through space ;
Nobody knows just when we begun
 Or how fur we've gone in the race.
Scientists argy we're shot from the sun,
 While others we're goin' right back,
An' some say we've allers been here more or less,
 An' seem to establish the fact.
O' course 'at's somepin' 'at nobody knows,
 As far as I've read or cun see ;
An' them as does know all about the hull scheme,
 Why, none of 'em never agree.

Now, why I think it's a perilous time,—
 What do we know 'bout them spots
Up there on that glorious orb of the day ?
 Smart men has argyed an' lots
Of the brainiest folks has been cypherin' out,
 An' all sorts of stories has riz
,Bout what the sun's made of or how it's composed,
 An' lots of 'em think that it is.
O' course 'at's somepin' 'at nobody knows—
 Nobody under the sun ;
Nary a body or bein', I s'pose ;
 Nary a bein' but One.

Take Eva Lution, an' what does she say
 'Bout how we all sprung from a ape?
An' there's the goriller and big chimpanzee,
 Patterned exactly our shape.
An' I've seen some folks, an' I guess so have you,
 An' it ain't none of our bizness neither,
That actually looked like they sprung from a ape,
 An' didn't have fur to spring either.
- Course 'at's somepin 'at everyone knows ;
 I don't see how you folks can doubt it ;
S'posin' they have some resemblance to us,
 No use in a-writin' about it.

If a feller 'll take a geology book
 An' not go a rushin' long through it,
But jes' sort o' figger the thing out hisself—
 What I mean is : 'ply hisself to it—
He'll see we've dug up folks ten thousand years old,
 Built on a ponderous plan ;
Somehow this knocks Mr. Moses all out
 An' Adam, the biblical man.
O' course 'at's somepin 'at nobody knows,
 Nobody under the sun ;
Nary a body or bein' I s'pose,
 Nary a bein' but One.

GEDDER IN YO' GRAIN

De ole plow hoss is busy
Breshin' flies off wid his tail,
De ole dog's got a move on him
Dat's zackly like a snail.
De meddeli grass is noddin'
En off yondah in de lane
I kin hyar de tree toads warnin'
"Bettah gedder in yo' grain."

Doan yo' hyar de frogs a-gurglin'
Dar out yondah in de pond?
What's de mattah wid de cat bird,
Doan yo' hyar his voice respond?
Ain't de hull of 'em a-tellin' yo'
In language mighty plain,
"Doan be frivlin' way yo' moments,
Bettah gedder in yo' grain."

Ain't de bumble bee a hummin'
'Mongst de clovah tops an' flowahs,
Whilst de ole clock am a-tickin' 'way
De minutes an' de howahs?
Chile, yo's got to be a huslin'
To ketch de wisdom train.
Doan' waste no opportunities.
But gedder in yo' grain.

ME AND ALAN JONES

JANE JONES

Jane Jones keeps talkin' to me all the time
An' says, you must make it a rule
To study your lessons 'nd work hard 'nd learn,
An' never be absent from school.
Remember the story of Elihu Burritt,
An' how he clum up to the top,
Got all the knowledge 'at he ever had
Down in a blacksmithing shop?
Jane Jones she honestly said it was so,

Mebbe he did—

I dunno!

O' course what's a keepin' me 'way from the top,
Is not never havin' no blacksmithing shop.

She said 'at Ben Franklin was awfully poor,
But full of ambition an' brains;
An' studied philosophy all his hull life,
An' see what he got for his pains!
He brought electricity out of the sky,
With a kite an' a bottle an' key,
An' we're owing him more'n anyone else
For all the bright lights 'at we see.
Jane Jones she honestly said it was so!

Mebbe he did—

I dunno!

O' course what's allers been hinderin' me
Is not havin' any kite, lightning, er key.

Jane Jones said Abe Lincoln had no books at all
An' used to split rails when a boy ;
An' General Grant was a tanner by trade
An' lived way out in Ill'nois.
So when the great war in the South first broke out
He stood on the side o' the right,
An' when Lincoln called him to take charge o' things,
He won nearly every blamed fight.
Jane Jones she honestly said it was so !

Mebbe he did—

I dunno !

Still I ain't to blame, not by a big sight,
For I ain't never had any battles to fight.

She said 'at Columbus was out at the knees
When he first thought up his big scheme,
An' told all the Spaniards 'nd Italians, too,
An' all of 'em said 'twas a dream.
But Queen Isabella jest listened to him,
'Nd pawned all her jewels o' worth,
'Nd bought him the Santa Maria 'nd said,
"Go hunt up the rest o' the earth !"

Jane Jones she honestly said it was so !

Mebbe he did—

I dunno !

O' course that may be, but then you must allow
They ain't no land to discover jest now !

ELOPEMENT

I'm out at the home of my Mary,
Mary so young and so fair,
But her father and mother
And sister and brother
And all of the family are there.

I'm now on the sofa with Mary,
Mary with bright, golden hair ;
But her father and mother
And sister and brother
And all of the family are there.

I'm way up the river with Mary,
Picnicking in the cool air ;
But her father and mother
And sister and brother
And all of the family are there.

I'm in the surf bathing with Mary ;
Her form is beyond compare ;
But her father and mother
And sister and brother
And all of the family are there.

I'm down at the parson's with Mary ;
It's rather a private affair ;
But her father and mother
And sister and brother
Well—none of the family is there.

HER FOLKS AN' HIZ'N

He maird her cause she had money an' some Property left from 'er husband's income ;
But both of the families was awfully stirred,
An' said the worst things 'at the town ever heard.

En her folks an' hiz'n,
Er hiz'n an' her'n,
Never spoke to each other
From what I can learn.

His folks begun it an' jest said 'at she
Was the worst actin' thing they ever did see ;
An' ought to be ashamed fer bein' so bold,
Cause her husband he hadn't had time to get cold.

En her folks an' hiz'n,
Er hiz'n an' her'n,
Never spoke to each other
From what I can learn.

Her folks they all set up 'at he was no good,
An' if 'twasn't for her—well, he'd have to saw wood.
Then all of her kin, every blasted relation,
Said she'd lowered herself in their estimation. —

So her folks an' hiz'n,
Er hiz'n an' her'n,
Never spoke to each other
From what I can learn.

The sisters they told—this is 'tween you and I—
'At they thought she wanted her husband to die ;
An' they whispered around—but don't you lisp a word—
The awfulest things that a soul ever heard.

So her folks an' hiz'n,
Er hiz'n an' her'n,
Never spoke to each other
From what I can learn.

'They said that a travelin' man, er a drummer,
Who stopped at the hotel a long time last summer,
That he—no it wasn't that now—let me see—
'That she—er something like that seems to me.

Well, her folks an' hiz'n,
Er hiz'n an' her'n,
Never spoke to each other
From what I can learn.

I hear 'at the families keep up the old fight,
A roastin' each other from mornin' till night ;
But the young maird couple they've moved to the city,
Where gossip don't go ; but I think it a pity

'That her folks an' hiz'n,
An hiz'n an' her'n,
Never speak to each other
From what I can learn.

THE YALLER JACKETS' NEST

If I could only wander back
 To boyhood jest one day,
So'st' I could have my chice agin
 Of games we used to play,
I'd let the kites an' marbles go,
 An' say, "Come on boys! let's
All go out a-huntin' fer
 The yaller jackets' nest."

Jest to lay up in the shadder
 Of the fence once agin
Of the old vacant lot
 'At the cows pastured in,
Where the dandelions were bloomin',
 'N there take a rest,
While you listen to the music
 'Round the yaller jackets' nest.

There was one 'at allers went along
 An' romped with us 'n raced,
With her sun-bonnet a hangin' back
 'N curls down to 'er waist,
In the checkered little frock she wore
 Of gingham,—what a pest
She was to us when huntin' fer
 The yaller jackets' nest.

It's the prime of the blossoms
 'At's a-hangin' from the trees
An' the music of the buzzin'
 'At brings lonesome memories,
Fer it seems as if I heerd her say
 " You better look out, lest
They all swarm out and sting yeh
 From the yaller jackets' nest."

Sometimes I think I hear 'er voice
 An' see 'er eyes of blue,
That horried all their color from
 The sky 'at peeks at you
Between the clouds in summer
 After rain has fell an' blessed
The flowers an' openin' blossoms
 'Round the yaller jackets' nest.

HOW HANK DIED

"Mother, the shadows are gatherin' in,
Shadows o' sunshine and shadows o' sin,
Shadows o' sorrow and shadows o' gloom,
All of 'em gatherin' now in my room.
See over there near the mantel-place wall
Is the darkest shadow. What's that—a call?
Oh, let in the light, keep that shadow away,
The one with the sickle that cuts today.
And far over there in the sunlands' West
I'll work in the pastur' after I rest."

"Oh, to get out o' this valley o' sin
Up in the cool o' the hillside agin!
Where are the boys? All away? Where's M'liss?
Who's holdin' my hand, an' whose arm is this?
Oh, here comes the shadow that beckons—what pain?
It must not come near me! Hear that? That rain
On the windows? See, down by the foot-board, where
The curtain moves! A shadow is there,
Comin' on tiptoe! It's after the light.
Oh, don't give it welcome, that shadow of night!"

"Don't leave me waitin' here now in the dark,
The shadows are entering. What—music? Hark?
Can that be the soft winds of summer that send
Their sighs o'er the fields for the loss of a friend?
So cold? I am getting so cold, so cold.
Oh, why are the shadows so bold, so bold?
Here comes the grim shadow, the shadow of death;
The cavern-eyed shadow that asks for my breath."

* * * *

"Good-bye," said the toiler; "good-bye every one."
Then somebody whispered: "The reaper is done."
His head fell back, and down by his side
His white hand dropped. That's how Hank died.

HOW OFTEN

'They stood on the bridge at midnight,
In a park not far from town ;
'They stood on the bridge at midnight
Because they didn't sit down.

The moon rose o'er the city
Behind the dark church spire ;
The moon rose o'er the city
And kept on rising higher.

How often, oh ! how often
They whispered words so soft ;
How often, oh ! how often,
How often, oh ! how oft,

BENTON HARBOR, MICH.

Sometimes I ain't a thing to do an' so, jist for the nonce,
I think of things I didn't see out on Midway Plaisance.
Although they claimed 'at every tribe an' nation, seems to me,
Was represented, yit there's some I simply didn't see.
I went all through the Cairo Street an' saw the Luxor great,
I saw the South Sea Islanders an' them from Congo State.
I saw the Patagonians, but, durn it all, my wish
Was more to see them funny folks from

Benton Harbor, Mich.

I took in all the biddin's that was prom'nent on the grounds,
Got in with a C'lumbian guard and we jist went the rounds.
I says to him, "I'm here this week to take the hull thing in ;
I might not git a chance to go against the thing agin.
Outside o' horterculture an' some o' the smaller fruits
I want to see them Wolverines at's still a-wearin' boots.
So don' show me no minin' er animals er fish,
I'd rather see them curios from

Benton Harbor, Mich."

What d' I care for foreign folks 'at come from pagan lands?
I've heerd an' read enough of Paig, an' heard the tom tom bands.
I've seen enough of Egypt, 'n Algiers, 'nd ancient Rome,
An' now I'm jist a-spilin' for somepin' right 'round home.
Why, gosh all Friday! Take yer Turks an' all yer foreign kit,
I want to see them Wolverines, an' I ain't seen 'em yit ;
Old Michigan I'm after ; seems as if I heerd the swish
Of breakers like I used to in

Benton Harbor, Mich.

So comin' out from there I says, "We'll take another ronte;
Course, you may know your bizness, but I know what I'm about.
I'm on a hunt fer friends jist now, not Japs er Javanese,
Or sore-eyed Esquimaux, er Coons, er bias-eyed Chinese.
I've heerd enough of 'Hot! hot! hot!' got frightened at the roar
'Round Hagenbeck's, an' shook hands with the sultan of Johore,
Until I'm simply tired out, an' now my only wish
Is jist to see them old-time folks from

Benton Harbor, Mich."

I walked till I got dusty an' thought I'd like to wash,
When lookin' up I saw a tower—'twas Michigan, by gosh!
"Come on," I says, "I'll show you now some folks you never saw,
Human bein's from Muskegon, Dowagiac, an' Saginaw;
Them folks 'at raises celery way out in Kal'mazoo,
Cassopolis, an' Globeville, an' Ypsilanti, too—
St. Joe and Berrien Centre." I guess I got my wish,
I jined the jays an' we went back to

Benton Harbor, Mich.

ASPHODEL

Carest thou naught for me, lone Asphodel?
Oh, flower! Shall all the summer days long gone
Roll into space remembered not? What spell,
Nay, more, what dream, what fantasy is this?
E'en one small hour to gaze and love. 'Tis bliss
Like Gyges knew behind the chamber door
In days of old. Those mellow days of yore.

Ah, no, sweet flower, say not farewell, I pray;
But let thine odor loiter yet a while,
And linger thou beside my lonely way,
Spreading thy perfume. And each tender leaf,
Sparkling with dew, like tears in eyes of grief;
Eager am I to pluck thee from thy stem,
To have thee near, and in thy fragrance dwell,
Trusting thee ever, fairy Asphodel.

THE FLOWERS' BALL.

There is an olden story,
 'Tis a legend, so I'm told,
How the flowerets gave a banquet,
 In the ivied days of old.
How the posies gave a party once
 That wound up with a ball,
How they held it in a valley,
 Down in "Flowery Kingdom Hall."

The flowers of every clime were there,
 Of high and low degree,
All with their petals polished,
 In sweet aromatic glee.
They met down in this woodland
 In the soft and ambient air,
Each in its lolling loveliness,
 Exhaled a perfume rare.

An orchestra of Blue Bells
 Sat upon a mossy knoll
And pealed forth gentle music
 That quite captured every soul.
The Holly hocked a pistil
 Just to buy a suit of clothes,
And danced with all the flowerets
 But the modest, blushing Rose.

The Morning Glory shining
 Seemed reflecting all the glow
Of dawn, and took a partner ;
 It was young Miss Mistletoe.

THE FLOWERS' BALL

Miss Maggie Nolia from the south
Danced with Forget-me-not ;
Sweet William took Miss Pink in tow
And danced a slow gavotte.

Thus everything went swimmingly
'Mongst perfumed belles and beaux,
And every floweret reveled save
The modest, blushing Rose.
Miss Fuchsia sat around and told,
For floral emulation,
That she had actually refused
To dance with A Carnation.

The Coxcomb, quite a dandy there,
Began to pine and mope,
Until he had been introduced
To young Miss Heliotrope.
Sir Cactus took Miss Lily,
And he swung her so about
She asked Sweet Pea to Cauliflower
And put the Cactus out.

Miss Pansy took her Poppy
And she waltzed him down the line
Till they ran against old Sunflower
With Miss Honeysuckle Vine.
The others at the party that
Went whirling through the mazy
Were the Misses Rhodo Dendron,
Daffodil and little Daisy.

Miss Petunia, Miss Verbena, Violet,
And sweet Miss Dahlia
Came fashionably late, arrayed
In very rich regalia.

Miss Begonia, sweet Miss Buttercup,
Miss Lilac and Miss Clover;
Young Dandelion came in late
When all the feast was over.

The only flower that sent regrets
And really couldn't come,
Who lived in the four hundred, was
The vain Chrysanthemum.
One flowerlet at the table
Grew quite ill, we must regret,
And every posie wondered, too,
Just what Miss Mignonette.

Young Tulip chose Miss Orchid
From the first, and did not part
With her until Miss Mary Gold
Fell with a Bleeding Heart.
But ah ! Miss Rose sat pensively
Till every young bud passed her ;
When just to fill the last quadrille,
The little China Aster.

DE SUN'S COMIN' BACK

Hush ! chillun, hush !

Kase de sun's done come back agin,
Back agin a shinin' on de ole cypress tree ;

Hush ! chillun, hush !

Hit shuahly am a fac' agin,
De sun's done come back agin,
Back agin to me.

Hush ! chillun, hush !

Foh de sun's done come back agin,
Pushin' yaller glory roun' in ebbery spot it finds,
Dancin' on de cradle
An' ole Chloe wid de ladle,
An' coaxin' out de blossoms on De honeysuckle vines.

Hush ! chillun, hush !

Kase de sof' winds come back agin,
Back agin, a bringin' all de glory ob de spring ;
My heart's jes' a throbbin'
For off yondah is de robin,
An' de blackbird am a-cluckin'
An' I 'low I heerd 'im sing.

Hush ! chillun, hush !

Kase de sun's done come back agin,
Bringin' back de fac' agin I'se gittin' mighty old ;
I often sit and pondah,
An' I wondah, an' I wondah,
How many times it's comin' back
Befo' I reach de fold.

THE RIVER ST. JOE

Where the bumblebee sips and the clover is red,
And the zephyrs come laden with peachblow perfume,
Where the thistle-down pauses in search of the rose
And the myrtle and woodbine and wild ivy grows ;
Where the cat-bird pipes up and it sounds most divine
Off there in the branches of some lonely pine.
Oh, give me the spot that I once used to know
By the side of the placid old River St. Joe !

How oft on its banks I have sunk in a dream,
Where the willows bent over me kissing the stream—
My boat with its nose sort of resting on shore,
While the cattails stood guarding a runaway oar—
It appeared like to me, that they sort of had some Way of knowing that I would soon get overcome.
With the meadow lark singing just over the spot
I didn't care whether I floated or not—
Just resting out there for an hour or so
On the banks of the tranquil old River St. Joe.

Where the tall grasses nod at the close of the day,
And the sycamore's shadow is slanting away—
Where the whippoorwill chants from a far distant limb
Just as if the whole business was all made for him.
Oh ! its now that my thoughts, flying back on the wings
Of the rail and the die-away song that he sings,
Brings the tears to my eyes that drip off into rhyme
And I live once again in the old summer time,
For my soul it seems caught in old time's under-tow
And I'm floating away down the River St. Joe.

THE ROBIN AND THE CHICKEN

A plump little robin flew down from a tree,
To hunt for a worm which he happened to see.
A frisky young chicken came scampering by,
And gazed at the robin with wondering eye.

Said the chick, "What a queer looking chicken is that?
Its wings are so long and its body so fat!"
While the robin remarked, loud enough to be heard,
"Dear me! an exceedingly strange looking bird!"

"Can you sing?" robin asked, and the chicken said, "No,"
But asked in his turn if the robin could crow.
So the bird sought a tree and the chicken a wall,
And each thought the other knew nothing at all.

BABY UP AT BATTENBERG'S

Heerd 'bout what's happened?
Why o' course ye has;
Baby up at Battenberg's,
Hope it tain't the las'!

Doctor come at eight o'clock,
Rig all splashed with clay;
Dad a trampin' up the hall,
Skeery?—I sh'd say!

Kind o' still 'roun' the house,
Folks on tip-toe walk
Tell the door is open
An' we hear a squawk!

Doctor whispers suthin',
Daddy hollers: "No!"
Doctor says "twelve pounder!"
Daddy whoops out: "Sho!"

Daddy—happier'n a clam!
Mother doin' well;
Baby up at Battenberg's,
Haven't ye heerd tell?

NO HARM DONE

Excuse me, Mr. Handy, for a droppin' you a line,
But the fact is, I've arrived in town and feeling mighty fine ;
I'm stoppin' at the Press Club, er that's where I take my meals,
An' I mus' say I'm agitatin' some colossal deals ;
But what I want to ask you is, 'at seems a botherin' me,
Is your hippodrome at Jackson Park, that's what I want to see ;
I'd lay all careful pains aside an' wear a steady grin
'F I thought 'at you could work some scheme

Of gittin' of me in.

Course, if you say they isn't,

I'll say I's just in fun,

And we'll just let it go at that—

They's no harm done.

Say, Handy, what I want is so's I can push my phiz
All round the hull World's Fair grounds an' see everything they is,
An' when a C'lumbian guard comes up unmannerly an' gruff,
I'll flash the pass you give me, Handy, that'll be enough,
An' passin' on an' mirrorin' my face in the lagoon
Where that fellow is a standin'—now what's his name?—Neptune.
I want to see you, Major, yes, I want to grasp your fin,
Cause I know 'at you could work some scheme

Of gittin' of me in.

Course if you say they isn't,

I'll say I's just in fun,

And we'll just let it go at that—

They's no harm done.

I want to see the state buildin's an' all ther' is there,
 I want to see that queer machine that turns out compressed air,
 Th' Administration buildin' an' the Agricultural hall—
 I tell you, Major, hones'ly, I want to see it all.
 I'll be alone mos' of the time an' nothin's going to please
 Me better than to get acquainted with those Javanese.
 Don't say a word! Say, Handy, I must brace you agin:
 Is they any possibility

Of gittin' of me in?
 Course if you say they isn't,
 I'll say I's just in fun,
 And we'll just let it go at that—
 They's no harm done.

I've read the weekly papers, Major, out at old St Joe,
 They ain't bin nothin' in 'em 'at the country folks don't know.
 Some wants to see machinery, some paintin's, and some fish,
 Some want to hear the music too, but I tell you my wish
 Is just to see them foreign girls from Spain an' sunny France,
 An' Abdul Something, what's-his-name, that's got them girls
 'at dance

Out there in Midway Plaisance, an' the Sultan an' his kin.
 Oh, Handy, you must fix some scheme

Of gittin' of me in.
 Course, if you say they isn't,
 I'll say I's just in fun,
 And we'll just let it go at that—
 They's no harm done.

THE FATES

Fortune came to a youth one day and dressed 'im
Up in his best. While Society smiled and caressed 'im,
Along came Toil with a hammer and saw to test 'im—
And all three pressed 'im.

Manhood came, as it usually does, to beard 'im ;
Virtue stole in and sat by his side, but feared 'im ;
Ambition came with wonderful schemes and steered 'im—
But all three queered 'im.

Wisdom came and knocked at his door ; he spurned 'im.
Frivolity came on bicycle wheels and turned 'im ;
Remorse at last came up and stung 'im and burned 'im—
And all three churned 'im.

Poverty opened his door and found 'im and sought 'im ;
Paralysis, crouched in a corner, had finally caught 'im ;
Idleness claimed the prize because she'd taught 'im—
But all three got 'im.

Old Charon rowed up in Time's canoe and ferried 'im
Over the creek, when an undertaker hurried 'im,
Dropped sand on his box, while a parson talked and worried 'im—
But the whole crowd buried 'im.

PARAPHRASE

The master of the manor house each morn
Upon his shining steed through arbored gates
Rides forth and out upon the dusty road
To yon small hamlet smiling on the hill,
At eve rides back with swaying form ; he meets
The faithful footman and, his charger placed,
He wends his way into the mansion hall,
While I, down here in meadow lands all day,
I only s-s-stack the hay.

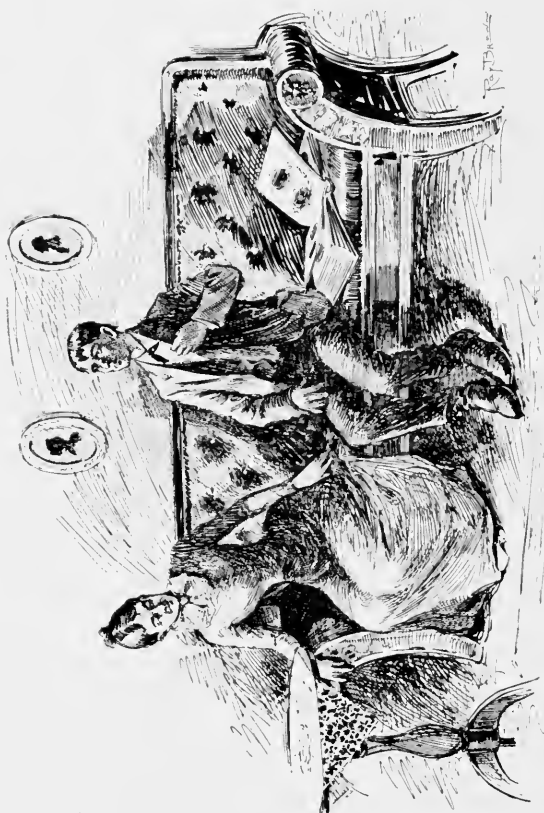

The opulent lord when mellow days are come,
At the high note of red-combed chanticleer,
With horse and hound and merry crowd now bent
Upon the chase. Swift through fox-scented roads,
Stopping, perchance, at many a wayside inn,
The music of the jingling glass is his,
While I down here in perfumed clover fields,
Hear but the music of the lark and jay.—
I only s-s-stack the hay.

Lone is the mansion on the sunlit hill,
Save for the daughter of the chivalric lord,
Who comes now, finger-kissed by high-topped sheaves
(Pausing the while, half startled by the quail),
To where the haycocks dot the fallow fields ;
Comes in the roseate flush of maidenhood ;
Comes with a truant smile upon her lips,
And romping up to me exclaiming : “ Say ! ”—
B-b-but I—I only s-s-stack the hay.

Then spake she soft as runs a summer brook
 Or novel of some scribe of amorous mind :
 "How far the huntsmen must be on the road,
 Because the sun comes through my window-blind ;
 Within—strange creakings 'bout the halls : without—
 The scurrying leaves. So lonely am I now
 I've wandered here to ask whate'er betide.
 Wouldst cease thy work ? Pray, must you toil today ?"
 "W-w-well, yes," I s-s-say, "I have t-t-to s-s-stack the hay."

"Ah, sir !" she then replied : "A banquet spread
 But yesternight for me with many guests
 And suitors gathered 'round the festal board
 Sought ardently my hand ; and one forth brought
 A golden cup in memory of my birth.
 Yea, each in quest of all these lands. Kind sir,
 How now ; wouldst thou not drink from out my cup ?
 Prithee, come solace me ! Live while you live, for aye."
 "I c-c-ca-ca-can't," I s-s-say. "I have to s-s-stack the hay."

The days roll on and now a blase' youth
 Rides by the manor house. A reaper he
 In wisdom's fields. No importuning maid
 Bade him alight. She beckons. Quick he opes
 The gates, and, hastening to the banquet halls,
 He drinks to her, and, pledging endless love,
 They fly to distant parish. Now the hills
 And vales and lands that roll away are his.
 While I, down here in meadow-lands all day,
 I only s-s-stack the hay.

X
IF I CAN BE BY HER

I d-d-don't c-c-care how the r-r-r-obin sings,
Er how the r-r-r-ooster f-f-flaps his wings,
Er whether 't sh-sh-shines, er whether 't pours,
Er how high up the eagle s-s-soars,
If I can be b-b-be by her.

I don't care if the p-p-p-people s-s-say,
'At I'm weak-minded every-w-way,
An' n-n-never had no cul-common sense,
I'd c-c-c-cul-climb the highest p-picket fence
If I could b-b-b-be by her.

If I can be by h-h-her, I'll s-s-swin
The r-r-r-est of life thro' th-th-thick an' thin ;
I'll throw my overcoat away,
An' s-s-s-stand out on the c-c-c-oldest day,
If I can b-b-b-be by her.

You s-s-see sh-sh-she weighs an awful pile,
B-b-b-but I d-d-d-don't care—sh-she's just my style,
An' any f-f-fool could p-p-p-lainly see
She'd look well b-b-b-by the side of me,
If I could b-b-b-be by her.

IF I CAN BE BY HER

I b-b-b-braced right up, and had the s-s-s-and
To ask 'er f-f-f-father f-f-fer 'er hand ;
He said: "Wh-wh-what p-p-prospects have you got?"
I said : " I gu-gu-guess I've got a lot,
If I can b-b-b-be by her."

It's all arranged f-f-fer Christmas day,
Fer then we're goin' to r-r-r-run away,
An' then s-s-some th-th-thing that cu-cu-could'nt be
At all b-b-efore will then, you s-s-see,
B-b-b-because I'll b-b-b-be by her.

TOBOGGAN

Down from the hills and over the snow
Swift as a meteor's flash we go,
 Toboggan ! Toboggan ! Toboggan !
Down from the hills with our senses lost,
Jealous of cheeks that are kissed by the frost,
 Toboggan ! Toboggan ! Toboggan !

With snow piled high on housetop and hill,
O'er frozen rivulet river, and rill,
Clad in her jacket of sealskin fur,
Down from the hills I'm sliding with her,
 Toboggan ! Toboggan ! Toboggan !

Down from the hills, what an awful speed !
As if on the back of a frightened steed,
 Toboggan ! Toboggan ! Toboggan !
Down from the hills at the rise of the moon,
Merrily singing the toboggan tune,
 " Toboggan ! Toboggan ! Toboggan ! "

Down from the hills like an arrow we fly,
Or a comet that whizzes along through the sky ;
Down from the hills ! Oh, isn't it grand !
Clasping your best winter girl by the hand,
 Toboggan ! Toboggan ! Toboggan !

Down from the hills and both growing old,
Down from the hills we are nearing the fold ;

Toboggan ! Toboggan ! Toboggan !

Close to the homestead we hear the ring
Of children's voices that cheerily sing,

“ Toboggan ! Toboggan ! Toboggan ! ”

Down from the hills and we hear the chime
Of bells that are ringing out Old Father Time ;
Down from the hills we are riding away,
Nearing the life with its endless day ;

Toboggan ! Toboggan ! Toboggan !

DE BUGLE ON DE HILL.

I doan like de noise ob de marchin' ob de boys,
An' I 'low doan s'pose I evah will ;
Er de trampin' ob de feet to de drum's wild beat,
Er de sound ob de bugle on de hill.
Hit 'minds me ob de day when Gabe marched away
En ole missus stood beside de cabin do' ;
Somepin whispahed in my ear 'bout my little volunteer,
An' sade he nevah will come back no mo'.

I 'membah now de day jes' how he marched away,
Wid de bright sun er climbin' up de sky,
Marched out en down de street to de drum's wild beat,
Den dey fotched him home to die,
Oh, de sad en moanful way, po' ole missus kneeled ter
pray,
When Gabe sade : " Hit's gittin' mighty still."
But I rise en jine de boys when I hear de cannon's noise,
Er de blowin' ob de bugle on de hill.

Hit 'pears es if I seen de ole plantation green,
En sometimes I sho'ly think I hear
De regiment pars by, en 'low I hear de cry
En de moan ob my little volunteer.
En I see de moanful way po' ole missus kneel to pray,
En sometimes when all aroun' is still,
I kin hear de tread ob feet to de drum's wild beat
En de blowin' ob de bugle on de hill.

DE BUGLE ON DE HILL

Dar's a spot mighty dear to dis ole darky here,
Whar de sunlight is peepin' froo de palms,
Wid his hands 'pon his breast, dar my soldier's gone to rest,
Jes' peacefully er sleepin' in de calms.
En de drum's wild beat er de tread ob marchin' feet
No mo' kain't disturb 'im now until
De Lord gibs command, den I know he'll rise en stand
At de sound ob de bugle on de hill.

OLD ST. JOE

Of all the towns that jest suits me
From Stevensville to Manistee,
There's one oid place I can't fergit ;
It ain't a great ways off, and yit
From here it's sixty miles or so
In a bee line—that's Old St. Joe.

I don't p'tend to write, an' ain't
One of them air chaps 't paint ;
'F I was I'd tell of scenes 't lie
Stretched out afore a feller's eye ;
E'r when the sun was hangin' low
I'd paint it right from Old St. Joe.

I've seen folks gether thare in crowds
Jist fer to watch the golden clouds
Changin' shapes, and sort o' windin'
Into figgers, never mindin'
That old lake spread out below,
Reflectin' 'em at Old St. Joe.

Underneath them cedar trees
'S where I used to take my ease.
Birds a-singin' all along
The hedge, 'an each one had a song
An' sung its best to let you know
They jist got back to Old St. Joe.

They ain't no purtier site to me—
That is, 'cordin to my idee—
Than jist to watch the gulls 'at fly
Round that old pier ; an' hear 'em cry
An' circle round. It 'pears they know
Fishin's good at Old St. Joe.

Course the people over there
They don't notice 'em or care—
What they're worryin' 'bout is frost,
'N whether strawberries is lost ;
Yet they 'pear to take things slow,
Jist the same as Old St. Joe.

'Ceptin' rheumatiz, their health
Is middlin' good, an' as fer wealth
They got that, an' lots o' land ;
'Course the sile is mixed 'ith sand ;
But that's what makes the berries grow
Over there at Old St. Joe.

Take it gener'ly, as a rule,
A feller likes it where it's cool,
Where he can sleep, an' drink in air
That comes perfumed from orchards where
The peach trees jist begin to blow ;
Then where's a place like Old St. Joe ?

Such cool breeze blowin' back
Keeps the skeeters makin' tack
'N the flies they mostly stay
Up round Pipestone creek, they say.
Tell you what, one thing I know—
They ain't no flies on Old St. Joe.

THE TRAMP

He came from where he started
 And was going where he went.
He hadn't had a smell of food,
 Not even had a scent.
He never even muttered once
 Till he began to talk,
And when he left the kitchen door
 He took the garden walk.

He said : " There's no one with me,
 Because I am alone ;
I might have scintillated once ;
 My clothes have always shone.
I got here 'fore the other ones
 Because I started first ;
The reason I look shabby is
 Because I'm dressed the worst "

Then I asked him where he came from—
 This was just before we parted,
And he muttered indistinctly,
 " Oh, I come from where I started ! "

THE CHAUTAUQUAN MAID

She had studied every ology—
Ichthyology, zoology,
Philology, geology, conchology and more ;
Knew the bones of every mammal,
From the mouse up to the camel,
And the mollusks and crustaceans that crept on every shore.

To think her up in history
Was not at all a mystery ;
She could name you any ruler from old England to Sumatra.
It would certainly amaze you
What she said about Aspasia
And the little unsophisticated maiden, Cleopatra.

She had studied Greek and Latin,
Hebrew, Sanscrit (please put that in);
Read Xenophon and Horace, Ovid, Virgil and the rest.
She didn't say—"I'll learn yuh,"
But teach you that Calphurnia
Sewed fifty-seven button holes in Julius Cæsar's vest.

She loved to pull the petals
From a flower. The baser metals
She doted on their study, and for nuggets she would bone you.
She loved the dromedary,
And the docile cassowary,
And the feathers of the emu she had stuck in her "chiffonier."

She had studied evolution,
And arrived at the solution
How long our first appendage was ; of course, I didn't ask her,
But she said that she'd resolved from
What she knew, that I evolved from
A carrot-haired chimpanzee she had seen in Madagascar.

She could scan iambic meter
And she knew each Roman praetor.
And surprised me when she told the way the empire came to fall.
The Huns sneaked in the forum,
And the Romans tried to floor 'em
But they got themselves in trouble, and, of course, got whipped, by Gaul.

I'M A BLUEJAY

I'm a bluejay 'nd never mind
'F my toe does stick out behind.

When I ketch on a limb

I'm there for keeps—

'Lesn I let go.

Of course I must eat.

Sometimes, you know,

I have to jes' let go

O' that hind toe.

I'm a dead sure thing in spring.

As soon's the weather's kind o' warm

You'll notice me on a fence.

I feel immense

In my blue suit.

The woods can ketch my chirp ;

You hear my toot

From then out 'f you don't shoot

At my blue suit.

I put ripe cherries in my face,

Same place I wedge all the bugs ;

An' don't you ever think

'At I'm no good

An' sponge my way,

Do I? I guess I'll fool yuh,

I eat yer darn "circulia."

I guess I work my way

'F I am a jay.

'RASTUS KING

As you happen jes' to mention
Old time friends 'at sort o' bring
Mem'ries back, I'd like to ask
What's become o' 'Rastus King?

Did he go out west prospectin'
Far on Californy's rim?
Did he settle with the Injuns,
Or did the Injuns settle him?

What a great big-hearted feller
'Rastus was, and how he'd sing!
Sometimes tears 'll start to rollin'
When I think o' 'Rastus King.

Where is he an' what's 'come of him?
Is he toilin' hard fer bread?
Is he prosperous and wealthy?
Is he livin' still, or dead?

How my heart recalls the mornin'
That I met him. Splittin' wood,
Payin' fer his school tuition,
Earnin' thus a livelihood.

Allers boarded at the neighbors,
Turned his hand at anything;
Faithful, honest; well the farmers
Simply swore by 'Rastus King.

'RASTUS KING

Find him down to meetin' Sundays
Sittin' in the deacon's pew ;
Talk about yer knowledge ; he had
Read the Bible through and through.

When the choir would jine together
An' with the congregation sing,
Way above all other voices
You could hear 'im—'Rastus King.

Did you ever come to meet 'im ?
Do you think he's livin' here ?
Say, he ain't much older'n I am ;
Reckon now he's sixty year.

Last I heerd he's doin' splendid,
Rich, fast horses, everything.
Jest like him, a regular schemer ;
Oh ! I knew him, 'Rastus King.

Then the hackman I'd been asking
All these questions thus did say :
" Rastus livin' purty quiet ;
Don't go out at all, they say."

" Don't go out at all—why stranger ?"
" What's the matter ? Did he fail ?"
" Well," said he, " nothin's the matter
Stephen, only he's in jail."

THAT VALENTINE

Once I remember years ago
 I sent a tender valentine ;
I know it caused a deal of woe.
Once I remember years ago,
Her father's boots were large, you know.
 I do regret the hasty line,
Once I remember years ago
 I sent a tender valentine.

I know I never can forget
 I sent the tender valentine ;
Somehow or other I regret,
But how I never can forget,
But then, I know, I know I met
 Her father, Oh, what grief was mine.
I know I never shall forget
 I sent a tender valentine.

DE GOOD SHIP

I'se bin watchin' long fer de Good Ship,
De Good Ship de Lo'd sent ter me ;
An' it 'pears dat hit's had a long voyage
Crossin' life's troublesome sea.

I'se spected it 'long in de moh'nin',
When nary a sail was in sight,
An' I'se looked fer it 'long about noonday,
'N watched fer it way in de night.

Till I cast my eye oval de boun'less
Ole ocean, an' what did I see?
Off dar in de hush ob de distance
De Good Ship a comin' to me.

So I laid my haid down on my pillow,
Fo'gettin' life's worry an' sin ;
An' when I awoke in de moh'nin',
My Good Ship had done got in.

A CASUAL OBSERVATION

Dar's miffin' hyar but vanity
An' riches an' insanity ;
De dollah seems to be de people's god.
Dar's a heap too many 'Scariots
A ridin' 'roun' in chariots,
While de po' man am a carryin' de hod.

Dar's too much haste an' hurryin',
An' too much wealth at buryin',
An' dis hyar t'ing am gettin' worse an' worse,
Hit takes all ob de rakin's,
De scrimpin's an de scrapin's
To liquidate de 'spenses ob de hearse.

Dar's heaps ob care an' worry ;
Ebberybody's in a hurry,
An' de few am growin' richer ebbery day ;
But de most of us must shovel
F'or de children in de hovel
An' silently await de judgment day.

LIKE THE NEW FRIENDS BEST

Don't talk to me o' old time friends,
But jes give me the new.
The old friends may be good enough,
But somehow they won't do.
I don't care for their old time ways ;
Their questions you'll allow
Are soulless as a parrot's gab :—
" Well, what you up to now ? "
' That's one thing I've agin 'em
' Cause that with all the rest,
Like hintin' 'bout some old time debt;
I like my new friends best.

I meet an old friend in the street,
As oftentimes I do,
Mechanically he stops to shake
An' say : " Well, how are you ? "
Then drawin' down his face, as if
His cheeks was filled with lead,
He says : " I spose you've heard the news ? "
" No ! " " Eli Stubbs is dead.
An' 'fore he died he ast for you—
Seemed sorry you was gone,
An' said 'at what he'd let you have
He hoped would help you on."
Now that's why I don't like 'em much,
You prob'bly might have guessed.
I aint got much agin' 'em, but
I like the new friends best,

Old friends are most too home-like now.
They know your age, and when
You got expelled from school, and lots
Of other things, an' then
They 'member when you shivered
The town an' broke the lights
Out of the school 'nen run away
An' played " Hunt Cole " out nights.
They 'member when you played around
Your dear old mommy's knee,
It's them can tell the very date
That you got on a spree.
I don't like to forget 'em, yet
If put right to the test
Of hankerin' right now for 'em
I like the new friends best.

A NEGRO SONG OF HOME

'Taint berry many people wat'll listen to a niggah
Un 'low dey's enny sense in wot he say,
But Ise gwine ter guv de 'sperience of mah feelin's, and I figgah
Dat dey's quite a smart o' people tinks mah way,
W'en a man begins a-shoutin' 'bout de good tings dat he's missin'
Kickin' kase dey ain't a fortune in his job,
Let 'im go home to his kitchen, an' set down a while an'
listen
To de singin' ob de kettle on de hob,
I've hayrd de strains ob "Home, Sweet Home" when Patti was a-singin'
An' de aujience was a-spillin' ob deir tears ;
But I didn't mind the singah, fo' a different tune kep' ringin'
Wif hits ha'nty kin' ob music in mah ears,
An' I reckernized de melerdy so powerful bewitchin'
Dat made mah heart like sixty fo' ter t'rob,
An' I mejiate felt a hank'rin' fo' my cozy little kitchen
An' de singin' ob de kettle on de hob,
De rich man can inhabitate a palace ef he wishes,
Wif brick-er-brack and pictuahs on de wall ;
An kin lay on velvet sofers an' eat off'n golden dishes,
But I wouldn't swap mah kitchen fo' his all ;
Fo' hit wouldn't be like home ter me but 'ceptin' I could listen
A puffin' at de backy in mah cob
While de good Lawd seemed a-speakin' ob a home-like kin' ob bless'n
Frough de singin' ob de kettle on de hob,

S'POSIN'

What if the new San Francisco should sail
To Chilian waters away,
With the Boston and Yorktown afar in the east
'Nd the Lancaster off in Bombay ;
'Nd the big Philadelphia—s'posin' she wuz
A-loadin' with tea in Japan,
With the Concord and Bennington flyin' so gay
Their colors around Hindostan ;
'Nd s'posin' the Charleston wuz in Behring Sea,
With the Newark in Pamlico Sound,
'Nd the Miantonomah's big bilers should bust
'Nd the Baltimore run hard aground ;
Then s'posin' we got in a fight right away
With Chili or even Peru,
'Nd England should work the shell game on New York,
Say—what in the deuce would we do?

LITTLE 'RASMUS

De Great Good Speret come down from above
 An' took little 'Rasmus away ;
Took my leetle 'Rasmus dat played peep wid me,
En rode out to Banbury Cross on my knee,
 Took po' leetle 'Rasmus away.
Took my little 'Rasmus dat played roun' de do'
An' danced at de sunbeams dat fell on de flo',
 Took my leetle 'Rasmus away.

Dat's why Ise down-hearted an' kain't fin' relief,
An' ol' an' bent over ; Ise loaded with grief
 Kase 'Rasmus has done gone away.
De Great Good Speret comes down from de sky
An hovahs aroun' ebbery day,
An hit 'pears what yo's lovin' a leetle too much,
De good speret takes it away.
 Kase he took leetle 'Rasmus away.

But I know de Good Speret mus' be mighty glad
But dis darkey's heart am jes' mounful an' sad
 Since 'Rasmus has done gone away,
An mos'ly at morn, when de whimperin' breeze
Am loiterin' up in de sycamore trees,
An' at noon when de sun dances roun' on de flo'
Dis ole darkey's heart am jes' burdened wid woe,
An' at night twixt de win' an' de patterin' rain,
My po' soul an' body am restless wid pain
 Since 'Rasmus has done gone away.

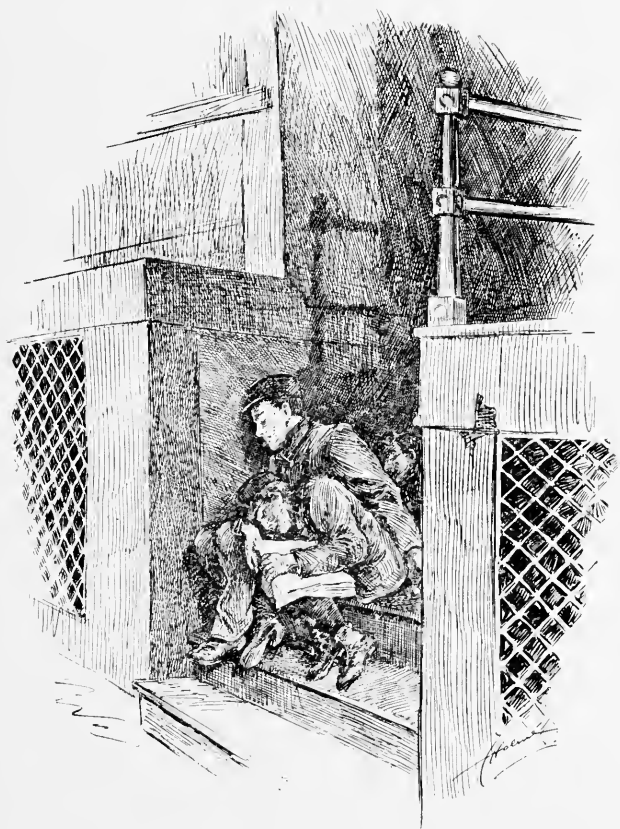

But I know de Good Speret comes down from de sky
An' hovals aroun' ebbery day,
An' hit pears what yo' worship a leetle too much
De Good Speret takes it away,
Kase it took leetle 'Rasmus away—
Took po' leetle 'Rasmus away.

NOBODY KNOWS

Nobody knows when de col' winds am blowin',
Whar all de po' little chillun am a-goin',
Nobody knows when de night time's hoverin'
How many little ones am des'tute ob coverin',
Nobody sees but de Lo'd done see 'em,
An' bime-by de Lo'd 'll tell humanity ter free 'em.

Nobody knows jes' how many am in rags,
A-sleepin in de hot blocks an' 'roun' on de flags,
Nobody sees all dis poverty an' woe,
A-livin' on de emptyins an' not a place ter go.
Nobody sees but de Lo'd done see 'em,
An' bime-by de Lo'd 'll tell humanity ter free 'em.

Nobody knows whar dis poverty all comes—
How many po' folk am sleepin' in de slums.
Nobody knows jes' how few am befriendin',
But de good Lo'd knows dar must soon be an endin',
Nobody sees but de Lo'd done see 'em,
An' bime-by de Lo'd 'll tell humanity ter free 'em.

SHE DOES NOT HEAR

Sh-sh-sh-sh-she does not hear the r-r-r-r-robin sing,
Nor f-f-f-f-feel the b-b-b-b-balmy b-b-breath of Spring ;
Sh-sh-sh-she does not hear the p-p-pelting rain
B-b-b-beat ta-ta-tat-t-t-toos on the w-w-winder p-p-page.

Sh-sh-sh-she cuc-cuc-cannot see the Autumn s-s-sky,
Nor hear the wild geese s-s-s-stringing b-b-by ;
And, oh ! how happy t-t-t-'tis to know
Sh-sh-she never f-f-feels an earthly woe !

I s-s-spoke to her ; sh-sh-she would not speak.
I kuk-kuk-kuk-kissed her, but c-c-cold was her cheek,
I could not twine her w-w-w-wondrous hair—
It w-w-was so wonderf-f-f-fully rare.

B-b-beside her s-s-stands a v-v-v-vase of flowers,
A gilded cuc-cuc-cuc-clock that t-t-tells the hours ;
And even now the f-f-fire-light f-f-f-falls
On her, and d-d-dances on the walls.

Sh-sh-she's living in a p-p-pup-purer life,
Where there's no tu-tuh-turmoil and no strife ;
No t-t-t-tongue can m-m-m-mock, no words embarrass
Her b-b-b-b-by g-g-gosh ! she's p-p-plaster paris !

DOWN THE MISSISSIPPI

Oh, de ole plantation landin',
On de Mississippi sho',
'Pears es if I seed ole massa
Standin' waitin' dar once mo'—
Back aways to whar de cabin's
Almos' hid by lilac trees—
Seems es ef I h'yard po' missus
Singin' old-time melodies.

Hollyhocks en honeysuckles
Grow en bloom along de way,
Leadin' up dar to de cabin ;
But de ole folks, whar are dey ?
An' de winin' path a leadin'
Roun' de house ; sometimes a spell
Seems es ef I h'yard de win'less
H'istin' watah f'om de well.

Cap'n, kain yo' stop de boat, sah ?
Stop de boat, kase well I know
I has done gone down dis rival
'Bout es far's hi keah ter go,
You kin lan' me soon's yo's ready,
En I 'low I'll fin' mah way
Back to dat ole shattah'd homestead
Whar de sun shines froo today.

Massa Lincoln's gunboats lef' it
 Jais dat way in sixty-three ;
Cose dey did some monsus damage,
 But dey set us dahkies free.
How I 'membah po' ole missus
 Standin' n'yah de cabin do'
En she say : " Yo' gwine off, 'Rasmus ?
 Ain' yo' gwine come back no mo' ? "

Den I sade : " Not zackly, missus ;
 Somepin's done ketched ontah me.
Dar's a big stampede ob darkies
 From Kaintuck en Tennessee.
When de boat comes up de ribbah
 Whistlin' 'roun' de lower bow
I mus' leebe de ole plantation—
 Yas, must say good-bye en go. "

Massa so't o' bowed his haid, sah,
 Sittin' in 'is ole ahm-chair ;
Missus, standin' on de do' step
 Caught de sunlight in her hair ;
An' de breezes from de orchard
 'Peared to rustle froo de trees,
En I h'yard old Judy weepin'
 Wid de chillun roun' her knees.

DOWN THE MISSISSIPPI

Tale yo' I was mighty sad, sah,
 But I sort o' walked away.
 Years en years ago it was, sah ;
 Now Ise wanderin' back today.
 'Deed Ise lookin' back en gazin'
 Mos'ly now each side de stream.
 Lan'marks gittin' mighty natch'l.
 'Clar hit 'pears jais like a dream.

Dar's de place ! Dat's hit, dar, cap'n,
 Dis yere side de ole ho'n bow ;
 'Low yo' needn't stop de steamah ;
 Jais slack up a leetle—slow.

* * * *

Dar's de same ole steps a-climbin'
 F'om de landin' to de hill.
 Lan' ob goodness ! Ef de bushes
 Aint a-growin' thickah still.

In de lan' ob de forgotten ;
 Not a soul along de hill ;
 Not a voice to wake yo' gladness ;
 Everything do 'pear so still ;
 Not an echo to a footstep ;
 Not an ansah to a call
 'Sep' a mockin'-bird a-singin'
 To de lonesomeness—dat's all.

THE MERMAID

Sweet mermaid of the incomparable eyes,
Surpassing glimpses of the April skies.
Thy form, ah, maid, of the billowy deep !
So rare and fair, but to possess I'd creep
Where the old octopus deep in his briny haunts
Comes forth to feed on anything he wants ;
Where mollusks crawl and cuttle-fish entwine,
There on crustaceans be content to dine.
What ecstasies in some calcareous valley,
Had I but scales like thee 'tis there we'd dally,
There seek each peak and let no other bliss
Be more enchanting, than one salt-sea kiss ;
There sit and bask in love, and sigh, and feel
Each other's fins throb, or perhaps we'd steal
To some lone cavern. I suppose you know a
Place where we could pluck the polyzoa,
Or in your boudoir by your mirror there
I'd comb the sea weed from your auburn hair.
But hush! A red-haired mermaid sister comes this way
And lashing with her tail the wavelets into spray.
Cometh she alone o'er yonder watery pampas?
Oh, no. By Jove! There comes the white hippocampus.

DE BLACKBIRD FETCHED DE SPRING

When de autumn leaves was twistin'
An' a tryin' ter git loose
An' de apples in de cidah press
Had done turned inter juice ;
When de blackbird got down-hearted
An' made up his mind ter go,
Hit was den de time dis dahkey's heart
Was jes' pahboiled wid woe.

He was wid me in de furries
In de summah fields ob co'n,
An' aroun' a hookin' cherries—
'Deed he was, mos' ebbery mo'n,
An' he he'p me drike de horses,
Cluckt an' cluckt ter make 'em go.
Dat's why I 'low dis dahkey's heart
Was jes' pahboiled wid woe.

But he notice dat de yellin'
Was a-comin on de leaves,
An' de win' was so't o' whinin', too,
Jes' like a dog dat grebes,
An' wid nuffin' in de cherry tree
Exceptin' wintah's bref,
One day in fall he 'lowed he'd go
En jes' skip out himself.

Hi kain't persarsely blame 'im,
Kase I'd went ef I was him ;
'Low he knew de wintah wedder
Would done freeze 'im to de limb,
Kase he couldn't ha'dly navigate,
Er couldn't chuck er sing,
En so he said : " Good-bye ole man,
Ise comin' back in spring."

Dis moluin', honey, 'deed I heerd,
When ebberyt'ing was calm,
A song dat tetched mah po' ole heart
Like oil of gladeest balm,
An' who should I see settin' dar
Upon de ole hay rack,
But mah blackbird, shuah, mah blackbird,
An' 'e said, " Ise jes' got back."

Den he opened up his warble,
When de gentle winds so soft
Came dancin' from de hill-tops dar,
An' o'er de meddah croft,
An' down hyar by mah cabin do'
He sang an' flashed his wing,
An' I praised de Lo'd of glory,
Kase my blackbird fetched de spring.

APPEARANCES

De man dat wahs de slickest tile,
Doan draw de bigges' check ;
De riches' lookin' kin' ob sile
Doant yiel' de bigges' peck.

De hoss dat's highes' in de pool
Doan always win de race,
Kase sometimes he's a little off,
An' sometimes held fo' place.

De bulldog wid de orn'ry jaw
Ain' half so bad to meet
As dat dar yaller mungril cur
Dat's layin' for yo' meat.

De mooley cow dat hists her leg,
An' makes de milk maid scream,
Am jes' de bossie cow dat gives
De richest kin' ob cream.

De mule dat hab de wicked eye
Ain' half so bad, now min'—
Look out for dat old sleepy mule
Yo's walkin' roon' behin'.

THE GIRL WITH THE JERSEY

You can sing of the maid
Who, in faultless attire,
Rides out in her curtained coupe;
Her robes are exquisitely fashioned by Worth—
At eve they are décolleté;
But I, I will sing of a maiden more fair,
More innocent, too, I opine;
You can choose from society's crust, if you will,
But the girl with the jersey is mine.

I know her by all that is good, kind and true,
This modest young maiden I name;
I've walked with her, talked with her,
Danced with her, too,
And found that my heart was aflame;
I've written her letters, and small billet-doux,
Revealing my love in each line:
You can drink to your slim, satin-bodied gazelle,
But the girl with the jersey is mine.

IF MY WIFE TAUGHT SCHOOL

If I had a wife 'at taught school I would go
To far away countries. I'd fish from the Po
In a gondola gay and the splash of my oar
Would be heard by the natives around Singapore.

If my wife taught school,
I would, wouldn't you?
Er wouldn't yuh?
Enny way what would you do?

If I had a wife 'at taught school I would get Something fine in the shape of a furniture set;
If I could pay my board and she could pay hern,
There's a good many nice little things I could earn.

If my wife taught school,
I would, wouldn't you?
Er wouldn't yuh?
Anyway what would you do?

If my wife taught school you can bet I would fly
Like a condor, I'd roost pretty middlin' high;
I'd wear a silk tile and own hosses, I vow,
And do lots of things I ain't doin' now.

If my wife taught school
I would, wouldn't you?
Er wouldn't yuh?
Anyway what would you do?

If my wife taught school like some women do,
And I couldn't earn quite enough for us two,
I'd go in the barnyard, without any fuss,
I would blow out my brains with a big blunderbuss.

If my wife taught school,
I would, wouldn't you?
Er wouldn't yuh?
Anyway what would you do?

THE OLD SPINNING WHEEL

Do you remember the old spinning wheel
That stood in the attic so many years ago,
'Twas covered o'er with dust, and our mother used to say
" 'Twas an old family relic of our grandmother's day."

How the spinning wheel would creak
As if it tried to speak,
Recalling tender memories of yore;
How back in other years
Her eyes would fill with tears
As she heard the hum upon the attic floor.

Creak, creak, how it would creak
When up to the attic we'd steal,
But mother would say:

"Boys, come away
From grandmother's old spinning wheel."

Do you remember the cobwebs that clung
To the old oaken beams in the house we were born,
And there from the rafters how memory brings
Back the sage and catnip and the dried apple strings.

But ah! no other joys
Compared, when we were boys,
When we played upon the dear old attic floor.
To slowly turn the wheel—

And the spindle and the reel
Would sing the dear old song it sang of yore.
Creak, creak, how it would creak,
When up to the attic we'd steal.

But mother would say:
"Boys come away
From grandmother's old spinning wheel."

THE OWL AND THE CROW

There was an old owl
With eyes big and bright,
Who sung in a tree-top
One calm summer night.
And the song that he sung
I will now sing to you—
“To whit! To whoo, hoo!
To whit! To whoo, hoo!”

He sang there all night
Till early next morn,
When a crow came along
That was looking for corn.
The crow heard him singing
“To whit! To whoo, hoo!”
And offered to sing
A few notes that he knew.

Just then the old owl
In the tree-top so high,
With his classical shape
And his big staring eye,
Requested the crow,
In the deepest of scorn,
To sing his old chestnut
About stealing corn.

"Caw! Caw!" said the crow,
 "Well—my deeds are by light.
I don't steal young chickens
 And sit up all night,
With dew on my feathers;
 When I break the laws
In looking through corn-fields
 It's not without caws."

DE CLOUDS AM GWINE TER PASS

De wedder's mighty waum,
An' I gase it's gwine ter staum,
Doan yo' see de swaller flyin' to de thatch?
Black clouds a sweepin' by,
Jes' a skimmin' long de sky,
Dar's a hustlin' in de huckleberry patch.

Dar's Zeke and Hezekiah,
Jane Ann an' ole Maria,
Mighty skeery when dey see de lightnin' flash.
How dey hustle to de cabin,
Whar ole Dinah am a blabbin'
An de hoe cake am a bakin' in de ash.

I tole yo' kase I know,
Jes' what make it thundah so,
Dat's de way Gord shake de rain out ob de sky;
An' when yo' hyar de soun'
Like a shubbin' tables roun'
Yo' can see de pigs a runnin' to de sty.

But de clouds am gwine ter pass,
An' de sun shine out at las',
While de picaninnies play aroun' de do'
An' froo de windah blinds,
Hid by mornin' glory vines,
Hit's er gwine to flicker down upon de flo'

Gord moves in many a way,
So de ole Bible say,
Fo' he counts de drops and all de grains ob san';
An' when de darkness falls
'Pon dese hyar cabin walls
Hit am jes' de break ob day in uddah lands.

Den hurry, chillun, hustle while you may,
Kase yo' know dar's gwine ter come a rainy day,
But de gloomerin' will pass,
An' de sun shine out at las',
And de darkies clouds ob sorrer pass away.

A SUMMER'S AFTERNOON.

'Twas the close of a summer's day,
The sound of the flail had died away,
The sun was shedding a lingering gleam
And the tea-kettle sung with its load of steam.
The old clock ticked that hung on the wall
And struck 'ith the same old cuckoo call;
'Then oft I could hear the mournful bay
Of some watch-dog far away.
Then all ter onct piped in a jay.
I just sot there with my senses gone
And the shadders of twilight a creepin' on,
With the eerie hum of the small pee-wees,
Over there in the cedar trees,
And the tinkle of bells in the marshy loam
'At told me the cows were coming home,
And the sighing breeze came o'er the croft
But ah! comes a melody far more soft
Than the troubled notes of a lydian lute
Or the echoing strains of a fairy's flute;
It bids me awaken and live and rejoice,
'Tis only the sound of Elviry's voice—
Like an angel's whisper it comes to me:—
"Wake up, you fool, and come to tea."
An' it ain't in the spring er it ain't in the fall,
But the close of a summer's day,
That's all.

I FED THE FISHES

One day a big excursion sailed afar out in the lake
All bent upon an outing with their sandwiches and cake.
They sought the upper deck until the wind began to blow,
When all engaged in different things as every one must know;

While I fed the fishes,

I fed the fishes,

I fed the fishes clear to Old St. Joe.

Good Capt. Stines went up on deck to cast his weather eye;
A woman sadly, badly prayed—"Oh, Father, let me die!"
The cabin-boys ran back and forth in staterooms all around, While voices shrieked: "Oh, mercy—oop! Oh—oop! wish I were drowned."

But I fed the fishes,

I gave them my best wishes—

I fed the fishes clear to Old St. Joe.

The pilot boldly held the wheel as through the waves we sped,
While Purser Hancock ran abaft to hold some woman's head,
One fellow sat him down and sang: "Goodbye, sweetheart, goodbye;"

Most every one seemed occupied and, sad to say, then I—

I fed the fishes,

I fed the fishes,

I fed the fishes clear to Old St. Joe.

The "Chicora" rose up in the air and then came down "ker-sock;"

She wibble-wobbled in the sea and once she struck a rock;
The purser wore a pallid look, the women all turned pale,
While calmly I sat out on deck and hung over the rail,

For I fed the fishes,

I gave them my best wishes,

I fed the fishes clear to Old St. Joe.

Some tried to eat their sandwiches, some staggered, reeled and laughed,

While others went below to smile, and there the brown ale quaffed.

The steward, Richard Waters, rushed about with whiskey slings;

Most everyone seemed occupied and all did different things,

But I fed the fishes,

I fed the fishes,

I fed the fishes clear to Old St. Joe.

OLE BOSSIE COW

Po' ole bossie cow's down in de marsh,
Down in de marsh where de col' winds an' blowin',
Eb'ry now an' den when de staun dies away
Seems if I hyard ole bossie cow a lowin'.

So out by de cabin do' I stan' on de sweep,
An' listen in de win' an' dampnit' weddah,
An't pears dat I hear ole bossie cow agin,
An' I low dat she say—"Come down in de meddah."

Den down froo de marsh land trampin' along,
Down froo de gloom an' de night rains a-fallin',
Pickin' my way through the whisperin' reeds,
"Co-boss, co-boss, co-boss" a-callin'.

Den all ob a sudden I come to a stop,
An' dar ole bossie cow so gentle an' so kyind ;
An' I coax up ole brindle, an' I lead her by de ho'n ;
A wee little bossie cow comes follerin' on behin',
A wee little bossie comes follerin' on behin'.

THAT CAT

The cat that comes to my window sill
When the moon looks cold and the night is still—
He comes in a frenzied state alone
With a tail that stands like a pine tree cone
And says : " I have finished my evening lark
And I think I can hear a hound dog bark.
My whiskers are froze 'nd stuck to my chin.
I do wish you'd git up and let me in."

That cat gits in.

But if in the solitude of the night
He doesn't appear to be feeling right,
And rises and stretches and seeks the floor
And some remote corner he would explore,
And doesn't feel satisfied just because
There's no good spot for to sharpen his claws,
And meows and canters uneasy about,
Beyond the least shadow of any doubt

That cat gits out.

A FROG'S THANKSGIVING

I'm a frog with a shanty built over each eye
And a terrible push when I get on a hump,
There's very few reptiles that's one-half so spry
Or can come up along side o' me on the jump.

I'm a frog when the other birds take to the wing
And wander away beneath balmier skies,
I belong to the bloated bachtracian ring
With a pneumatic palate for coaxing in flies.

I'm a frog in the fall and a frog when the frost
Spreads over the land, and the forests are gray.
I'm a frog keepin' house at a very small cost
In a dug-out I've built out o' cat tails and clay.

I'm a frog with a green overcoat and a voice
That tickles the woods, when the winter's no more.
The old folks are glad and children rejoice,
At the first tap o' thunder, I let out a roar,

I'm a frog living down in the lush of the swale
You all know my voice when I'm looting for game
They call me a cannibal : What a sad tale.
Well, may be I am ; I'm a frog just the same.

LOVEY-LOVES

Oh, love, let us love with a love that loves,
Loving on with a love forever ;
For a love that loves not the love it should love—
I wot such a love will sever.
But, when two loves love this lovable love,
Love loves with a love that is best ;
And this love-loving, lovable, love-lasting love
Loves on in pure love's loveliness.

Oh, chide not the love when its lovey-love loves
With lovable, loving caresses ;
For one feels that the lovingest love love can love,
Loves on in love's own lovelinesses.
And love, when it does love, in secret should love—
'Tis there where love most is admired ;
But the two lovey-loves that don't care where they love
Make the public most mightily tired.

HANK SPINK

Hank Spink he said—er Bob did, his brother—
'At he hit a man once fer somepin or other,
An' after he hit 'im—I got this from Bob—
He simply went right out an' give up his job ;
Not Hank er Bob,

But the feller 'at got hit
Give us his job.

See?

He said 'at the wind, er the force of his blow,
Er somepin like that ; somehow—I don't know
Just now what it was—I got it from Bob
'At he got a good swat ; not Hank er Bob,
By a long shot,

But the feller 'at got hit
Got a good swat.

See?

He said he'd be blamed, 'at he didn't know
How he came to strike such an all-fired blow,
'Cept he guarded his right an' threw the hull heft
Of his weight an' his science, an' hit with his left ;
That lost 'im his job ; not Hank er Bob,

But the feller 'at got hit
Lost him his job.

See?

THE NILE

Not a single cloud bedims the sky,
Not a shadow falls below,
But crocodiles creep, enfeebled by heat
Through the lotus flowers that grow
On the banks of the Nile, the placid Nile,
The Nile of ages ago.

So sluggish and wan it wanders on
Where the citron and dhoun palms grow,
Where Sphinxes stare, through the lurid air,
At the sun in its molten glow ;
That's called the Nile, the tranquil Nile
Of ages and ages ago.

On the purple sheen of its mirror heart
Her galleys bend and row,
And Egypt's queen can still be seen,
Of olden lands the foe.
Ah ! this was the Nile, the ancient Nile,
The Nile of the long ago.

By the ashen banks of the ancient stream
The acacia tree bends low,
The ibis stands in this tomb of lands,
As if in a pallor of woe,
On the banks of the Nile, the sacred Nile,
The Nile of ages ago.

LIKE DE OLE MULE BES'

Some folks is so't o' pa'shal to de cattle roun' de fa'm,
Ter make a pet ob animals dey find hit so't ob balm,
While odders 'fer de poultry stock ; de goose, en duck, en hen
Is often made de mos' ob by de wisess kind ob men.
Some like de brindle mooley cow 'nd 'low dey hab de sense
Ter pear ter know dere massa we'n dey see 'im at de fence.
Some like the yearlin' colt ; I've raly seed men stand aroun'
An' pet a hoss all day 'nd rub his legs en fetlocks down ;
But gibbin all de animals de faires' kind ob tes'
I so't o' like de ole mule bes'.

Some pet de mockin' bird en robin redbress' an' de linnet ;
Some like de gobler kase he's struttin' roun' mos' ebery minute.
Some like de peacock fo' his pride, an' den some like de dog,
Whilst odders fo' companionship have prefunce fo' de hog.
Some fa'mers like de wedder sheep, en some de little lam',
De billy-goat, an' nanny-goat, whilst odders 'fer de ram.
Some like de little week-ol' calf w'en buntin roun' hits mudder
An' some folks dey like one thing an' den some folks like anudder ;
But 'f all de stock I'se raised wid in de Souf, er Eas' er Wes'
I so't o' like de ole mule bes'.

Dars sompin' meekly 'bout 'im, hits de fac' he isn't bold
An' de spression on 'is face is like de holy saints ob old ;
When he sort o' histe 'is heel up like 's gwine ter hit de sky
He's simply exalheisin' jes ter pestervate a fly.
An' de why he 'pears embarrass'd is kase nature had ter fail
An' made 'im sort o' long on ears, en kind o' short on tail ;
But den he's mo den' 'tatched ter me, and know I is his frien'
An' we done made up our mind ter stick tergedder ter de end ;
So dars no use ob yo' axin' me, yo's done had time ter guess
I so't o' like de ole mule bes'.

I used ter like Lucindy, but den 'Cindy couldn't stay,
An' little Sim, I worshipped so, de angels coaxed away.
An' Lize Anne, an' br'er Zeph dere up dar on de hill,
I pa'shley think I hear 'em, too, w'en all aroun' is still ;
Yo' see Ise mo' den lonesome heah, wid nobody ter talk,
Er hide behin' de lilac trees adown de garden walk,
Dat w'en I look at dat ole mule I feel so full ob woe
'Bout little Sim 'at rode on 'im, an 'taint so long ago,
Ob all de frien's dat's lef' me now, I 'raly mus' confess
I so't o' like de ole mule bes'.

DE RIBBER OB LIFE

I dreamt dat I saw de ribber ob life
 Dat flows to de Jaspah Sea.
De angels war wadin' to an' fro
 But none ob 'em spoke to me.
Some dipped dere wings in de silb'ry tide ;
Some war alone an' some side by side.
Nary a one dat I knew could I see
 In dat ribber ob life.
 De ribber ob life
 Dat flows to de Jaspah Sea.

De ribber was wide, dat ribber ob life.
 De bottom I plainly could see.
De stones layin' dar was whiter dan snow.
 De sands looked like gold to me.
But angels kep' wadin' to and fro ;
Whar did dey come from ?
Whar did dey go ?
None ob 'em sinnahs like me, I kno'
 In dat ribber ob life,
 De ribber ob life,
 Dat flows to de Jaspah Sea.

DE RIBBER OB LIFE

De watah was clear as de "well by de gate,"
Whar Jesus de light first see.

De sofes' ob music f'om angel bands
Come ober dat ribber ob golden sands,
Come ober dat ribber to me.

An' den I saw de clouds break away,
Revealin' de pearly gates ob day.
De beautiful day dat nebber shall cease,
Where all is joy, an' lub, an' peace.
And ovah dem gates was written so clear :
' Peace to all who entah here.'

De angels was gedderin' roun' de frone,
De gates done closed, I was lef' alone,
Alone on de banks ob a darkenin' stream,
But when I awoke I foun' 'twas a dream.

Ise gwine to ford dat ribber ob life
An' see de eternal day.

Ise gwine to hear dem heavenly bands,
An' feel de tech of ole-time hands
Dat long hab passed away.

Dars crowns ob glory for all I'm told,
An' lubly harps wid strings ob gold.
An' I know ef dars peace beyond dat sea,
Wid res' fo' de weary, dars res' fo' me—
Beyond dat ribber, dat ribber ob life,
Dat flows to de Jaspah Sea.

THE CAT O' NINE TAILS

The old cat o' nine tails is comin' round agin,
And the way he worries children sometimes is a sin ;
He grabs 'em by the collar, an' he yanks em by the clothes,
And reaches for a tender place. Why, what do you suppose
Will happen if you're impident an' set around an' grin?
Well, I'll have to call the cat o' nine tails in—
Have to call him in ; yes, have to call him in ;

Are you sassy to yer father, are you fibbin' to yer mother?
Are you quarrelin' with yer sister an' a pinchin' of yer brother,
Do you "ring around the rosey" till you have a dizzy feelin',
And you think yer goin' roun' an' roun' an' walkin' on the ceilin'?

Well, you better stop yer screechin' an' a-makin' such a din,

 Do you show off at the table, too, 'nd try to act up smart,
 'Nd p'int yer finger at the things 'nd say : "Gimme a tart?"
 If someone doesn't dress you down I think it is a sin ;

THE HAIR-TONIC BOTTLE

How dear to my heart is the old village drug store,
When tired and thirsty it comes to my view.
The wide spreading sign that asks you to "Try it,"
Vim, Vaseline, Vermifuge, Hop Bitters, too.
The old rusty stove and the cuspidore by it,
That little back room, Oh! you've been there yourself
And oft-times have gone for the doctor's prescription,
But tackled the bottle that stood on the shelf.
The friendly old bottle,
The plain-labeled bottle,
The "Hair-Tonic" bottle that stood on the shelf.

How oft have I seized it with hands that were glowing,
And guzzled awhile ere I set off for home;
I owned the whole earth all that night, but next morning
My head felt as big as the Capitol's dome.
And then how I hurried away to receive it,
The druggist would smile o'er his poisonous pelf,
And laugh as he poured out his unlicensed bitters.
And filled up the bottle that stood on the shelf.
The unlicensed bottle,
The plain-labeled bottle,
That "Hair-Tonic" bottle that stood on the shelf.

DE CIRCUS TURKEY

He's de worst I evah see,
Dat old turkey up 'n de tree,
I bin pesta'n him 'n punchin' him saince mohnin',
I nev' saince I was bo'n
See de way he do stick on,
En he pears to look down at me 's if he scornin'.

He doesn't seem to 'pear
'Ter hab a bit ob fear,
Kase Ise wasted all mah strength 'n bref upon 'im.
It may be he's in fun,
But I'll seah 'im wid dis gun,
Ise boun' ter git 'im down some way, dog on 'im.

Ise fro'd mos' all de sticks
In de yard, 'n all de bricks,
Ef yo' was me whut under d' sun 'ud yo' do?
He doesn' seem ter change,
'N 'pears ter act so strange,
I d'clar he mus' be pestah'd wid a hoodoo.

I tale yo' hits er fac'
I nearly broke mah back
Er histin' shoes 'n brick-bats up dar to 'im
'Pon dis Tanksgibbin' day.
I hate ter shoot, but say—
I bleebe a gun's de only thing 'll do 'im.

I 'low I'll make 'im think
He kaint gib me de wink
An' sait up on dat limb en be secuah.
Biff!—! Bang!—! I'll make 'im sing;
Mah goodness, watch im swing.
W'y he's a reg'lah circus turkey, suah.

Hi see de hull thing now—
Dat Rasmus boy, I 'low,
Has done gone tied 'is feet up dar wid strings.
No wondah dat he tried
Ter come off; he was tied
'N all what he could do was flap 'is wings.

Come hyar yo' Rasmus, quick, sah ;
Ise min'ter use dis stick, sah !
Come hyar, from ovali dar, from whar yo' stood.
I low I ought to lay yo'
Down on dat groun' en flay yo',
Ise tempted mos' ter use a stick o' wood.

Yo' kaint go to de meetin',
An' w'en it comes ter eatin'
Yo' mudder sais yo' kaint come to de table.
I bet you'll sing er tune,
Kase all dis aftahnoon
We's 'cided dat we'll lock yo' in de stable.

Yo' kaint hab none de white meat,
An' yo' kaint hab none de brown meat,
An' yo' jes hearn whut yer po' ole mudder sade ;
Yo' kaint hab none de stuffin'
Er de cranber' sauce er nuffin',
An' 'cisely at 6 o'clock yo' go ter baid.

SOFIE JAKOBOWSKI

Little Sofie Jakobowski,
Handsome as a forest flower,
Dwelt alone with Gokstad Pfouski
Ivan Ruric Romanowski,
In the palace of the tower,
Of the ancient tower of Ivan,
Dwelt she in the long ago,
Near by where the frozen Volga
Sleeps beneath its weight of snow.

Now, it seems old Gokstad Pfouski
Ivan Ruric Romanowski
Had a passion for the maid,
And was very much afraid
That perhaps she might get frisky—
Fall in love with John Zobiesky ;
So he locked her in the tower
Oft for many a weary hour.
He, the old decrepit sinner,
Kept her locked up growing thinner,
Many a week and month she staid
In that tower, and often laid
Down to rest upon the cold
Marble floor, so I am told
By an old Slavonic story
That is gray and bald and hoary ;
'Tis a legend that's so weird
Soft winds gently comb its beard.

Little Sofie Jakobowski
Was the fairest of the fair ;
Eyes that seemed half way confessing,
Yet would keep you coldly guessing,
Hair that in each wavy fold
Tales of witchery unrolled—
Being that old Angelo
Traced in cloisters long ago ;
Lips, those liquid lips whose dew
Is tintured with the rose's hue ;
Cheeks afire with the glow
Of maidenhood ; a neck of snow,
Hoping, grieving, sighing, praying
For her lover, disobeying
When she dared old Gokstad Pfouski
Ivan Ruric Romanowski,
Even hoping to the end
For her little Polish friend.
Now, it might be said if any
Maid had lovers she had many ;
Old traditions name a score.
Put perhaps a dozen more
On the little maiden's list,
For her charms who could resist ?
She could bring them from Siberia,
Hindostan, or far-off Syria,
From the Deutscher Zuyder Zee
To the rat-rice-fed Chinees.
There was little Moses Khan
From the village of Kasan,
Vadlimir, and Max Pulaski,
Peter Ulrich, and Hydrasky,
Isaac Ozam of Torique,
One Jim Bogado, a Greek,
And a soldier, Peter Hensky,
Of the noted Prebojenski ;
Kutusoff and Fedorovitch,

Little No Account von Storitch,
 Seizendorf, and Jake Zebatzki,
 Romanoff and Ruffonratzsky,
 This is but the half of them—
 Herr von Freitag Stobelpem,
 And a Jew that sent her Rhine wine,
 Moses Aaron Eiffel Einstein ;
 He from Hong Kong, Sam Wing Lee,
 Drinkee Allee Samee Tea ;
 Isawwiskey and Tschenimsky,
 Waronetski and Chewbinsky,
 And two nase a yentlemen,
 Yohn and Ole Petersen.

She could bring them, I presume,
 From the far-off land of doom,
 Each with one intent to woo her,
 Ardent, doing homage to her,
 Sending presents from Australia,
 Nuggets from the Himalaya
 Mountains, rings and souvenirs
 Enough to last a hundred years ;
 Arrows almost every hour
 Carried presents to the tower.
 Don't you think it quite a sin
 They had to shoot their presents in ?
 Think of how a despot's power
 Kept her locked up in a tower.
 She the fairest little maiden
 Dwelling on this side of Aiden ;
 Wouldn't any lover plunge in
 To the deepest Russian dungeon,
 Or become a serf and work
 Out his life at Nedjikerk
 To kidnap from yonder tower
 That sweet little Russian flower ?
 So I would, so did the frisky
 Nihilist, young John Zobiesky

Now the father of Zobiesky
Manufactured awful whisky,
But young John took more delight
In making bombs and dynamite,
And he entertained the Russians
With a series of concussions
Till they wanted him so bad
That it made all Russia sad.
Once I think he came not far
From blowing up "the only" czar,
But he had a most surprising
Way of hiding and disguising—
Never man as yet had found him,
Never army could surround him.
Probably he had a mascot—
Born a regular Russian Tascott.
John Zobiesky seemed contented
When he had them all fermented
'Round the palace. Near the gate
Cossack soldiers stood up straight,
Guarding with their guns and sabers
One another from their neighbors ;
Over there one can't resist
The thought to praise the nihilist.
Every day and every hour
You feel the despot's potent power ;
Every day you want to shoot
Some old potentate and scoot,
So with John. One day he saw
Another way to break the law,
Listen ! John was discontented,
And his smart brain soon invented
With saltpeter and corrosives
Something awful in explosives.
Then with heart chock full, elated,
Little John sat down and waited—
Waited for the sombre curtain

Of the night to make him certain
That he might not be discovered
Or his hellish plans uncovered,
Waited till a cloudy pall
Hung its mantel over all,
And Stygian darkness reigning far
Hid each peeping, tell-tale star,
That lately had begun to nod
From Omsk to Nijni-Novgorod.
Then he stole up to that tower,
Just beneath his lady's bower.
Fearlessly he placed enough
Of that paralyzing stuff
In the chinks and the foundation
Of that tower to blast a nation.
Then he sat him down and wrote
Forty letters—make a note.
He wrote forty, understand,
Wrote them in a woman's hand.
“I love only—only you ;
Come tonight, sweet love. Adieu !”
Signing with a heart aflame,
Sofie Jakobowski's name.

One dark night when all was still
On frosty turrent, dome and hill,
Forty suitors came in season,
Knocked, and—I don't know the reason—
Walked right in the door ; it swung
Open, then it closed and sprung ;
Every lover seemed to fare
The same, for they were prisoners there.
They were in beyond a doubt,
With no chance of getting out,
Now the risky John Zobbiesky
Had the Cossacks drunk on whisky,
And the guards with their long sabers,
Rested sweetly from their labors.

Sofie Jakobowski, frisky
Looked down on her John Zobiesky ;
John Zobiesky gazed at Sofie
And he longed to gain the trophy.
Sofie, up there in the casement
Throwing kisses towards the basement—
John Zobiesky at the basement
Hurling kisses to the casement.
But he has no time to lose ;
Fixing up the deadly fuse,
Now he hurls a line up till
It reaches Sofie's window sill.
Scarcely had she made it fast
When the maiden stood aghast !
Startled at what stood before her—
John Zobiesky, her adorer.
Don't get anxious ; I must own
John and Sofie were alone.
And I know a Russian kiss
Is not such hard-frozen bliss.
'Twas the first in years that they
Had thus embraced—the time that way—
So they occupied the present
Till the night had grown senescent ;
And they wondered oft how fared
The lovers down below that shared
The palace of old Gokstad Pfouski
Ivan Ruric Romanowski.

“Hark ! ” cried Sofie, “ ’tis the hour
When Moscow's bell in yonder tower
Peals a knell, and we must fly,
Or else together we must die.
Ah, look through yonder gate I see
That demon—and he comes to me—
The wretch that locks and keeps me here
From month to month and year to year.

Up jumps the risky little frisky
Nihilist, young John Zobiesky.
A kiss upon her lips, his hand
Upon his breast as if to brand
His vow : "You say 'he comes to me ;'
You cry : 'He comes ! He comes ! To thee
I swear by yonder moonlit snow
He comes !' Just watch and see him go."
Then with Sofie on his shoulder—
Never fear that he can't hold her—
Through the window down the rope,
The nihilist and maid elope.
Not a moment do they lose
Save to stop and light the fuse.
Slowly on its path it crawls
Toward the gray old castle walls,
Past the Cossacks with their sabers,
Still at rest from recent labors,
And the noble body guard—
They are snoring just as hard.
A flash ! A roar ! and Moscow rumbles,
And the tower of Ivan tumbles.
Up skyhigh went Godstad Pfouski
Ivan Ruric Romanowski,
Also little Moses Khan
Of the village of Kazan ;
Vadlimir and Max Pulaski,
Peter Ulric, and Hydraski ;
Isaac Ozam of Torique,
One Jim Bogado, a Greek,
And a soldier, Peter Henski,
Of the noted Prebojenski ;
Kutuseff and Fedorovitch,
Little No Account von Stovitch
Seizendorf and Jake Zebatzski,
Remanoff and Ruffonratzski,
This is but the half of them,

Herr von Freitag Stobelpem
And a Jew that sent her Rhine wine,
Moses Aaron Eiffel Einstein,
Drinkie Allee Samee Tea—
He from Hong Kong—Sam Wing Lee,
Isawwiskey and Tacheninski,
Waronetzski and Chewbimsky,
And two nase a yentlemen,
Volin and Ole Petersen.

SUNRISE

The dim light to the sou'ward
Is the beacon of the coast,
But the white light to the leeward
The mariner loves most.
And whether 'tis the dim light
Or the white light to the lee,
That great big hunk of daylight
Is light of lights for me.
But what it is of all lights
That fills my soul with glee,
Is when that hunk of daylight
Climbs up out of the sea,

THE WOODTICKS

There's things out in the forest
That's worser 'an 'n owl,
'At gets on naughty boys 'n girls
'At allers wears a scowl.
There's things out in the forest
'At's worser 'n a lion,
'At gets on wicked boys 'n girls
'At's quarrelin' an' a-cryin'.
There's things out in the forest, mind,
An' if you don't take care,
The woodticks—the woodticks—
Will be crawlin' thro' yer hair.

An' they say as boys is naughty,
An' their hearts is full o' sin
They'll crawl out in the night time
An' get underneath yer skin,
An' the doctor 'll have to take a knife
An' cut 'em off jes' so,
An' if a bit of 'em is left
Another one 'll grow.
An' mebbe you won't feel 'em, too.
Er ever know they're there,
But by and by they'll multiply
And crawl up in yer hair.

THE WOODTICKS

The devil's darnin' needle, too,
 'Ill come and sew yer ear,
An' make a nest inside like that,
 An' then you'll never hear ;
An' the jigger bugs gets on you,
 An' the thousand-legged worm
'Ill make you writhe, an' twist, an' groan,
 An' cry, an' yell, an' squirm ;
But the worst things 'at 'll git you
 If you lie, or steal, or swear,
Is the woodticks—the woodticks—
 A crawlin' thro' yer hair.

DIDN'T WE, JIM?

Yes, sir ; we lived home till our mother died,
An' I'd go a-walkin' with Jim, 'cause he cried,
Till night time 'ud come, 'nd we'd go up to bed
An' bofe say the prayers 'at she taught us ter said—
Didn't we, Jim?

An' pa 'ud stay late, an' we uster call,
'Cause we thought we heard 'im down stairs in the hall ;
An' when he come home once he fell on the floor,
An' we run'd an' hid behind ma's bedroom door—
Didn't we, Jim?

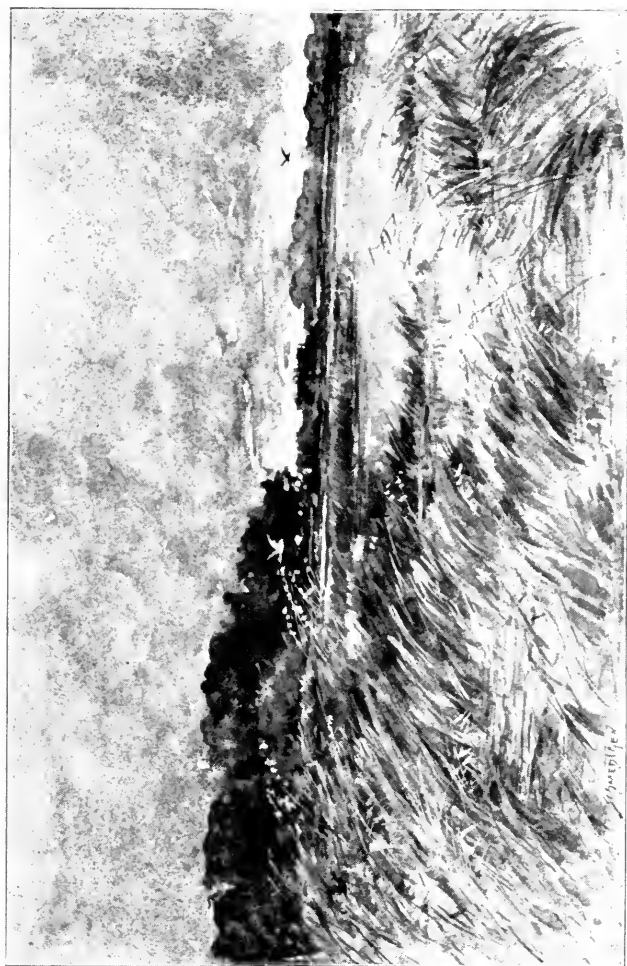

She told us, our ma did, when she's sick in bed,
An' out of the Bible some verses read,
To never touch wine, and some more I can't think ;
But the last words she said was never to drink—
Didn't she, Jim?

But our other ma, what our pa brought home there,
She whipped little Jim 'cause he stood on a chair
An' kissed our ma's picture that hung on the wall,
An' struck me fer not doin' nothin' at all—
Didn't she, Jim?

She said 'at we never had no bringin' up,
An' stayed 'round the house an' eat everything up,
An' said 'at we couldn't have no more to eat,
An' all 'at we 's fit for was out in the street—
Didn't she, Jim?

We said 'at we hated her, didn't we, Jim?
But our pa—well, we didn't say nothin' ter him,
But just took ma's picture and bofe run'd away;
An' that's what Jim's cryin' 'bout out here today—
Didn't we, ain't it, Jim?

Mister, don't feel bad—'cause Jim's cryin'—too;
Fer we're goin' ter hunt an' git somethin' ter do;
'Cause our ma 'at died said ter work an' ter pray,
An' we'd all be together in glory some day—
Didn't she, Jim?

THE POST-DRIVER

The lingering loon flies over the marsh
And the night bird nestles in dew,
The river is cold and the winds are harsh,
But what is it that goes cuhchoo?
What is it that goes cuhchoo, cuhchoo?
Oh, what is it that goes cuhchoo?

Then the rail comes up from his lushy bed
And wings to the realms of blue.
Wild lilies soak where the bullfrogs croak,
But what is it that goes cuhchoo?
What is it that goes cuhchoo, cuhchoo?
Oh, what is it that goes cuhchoo?

O'er the whispering reeds the rice-hen speeds,
And the meadow-lark singing anew,
And I know in the swail the song of the rail,
But what is it that goes cuhchoo?
What is it that goes cuhchoo, cuhchoo?
Oh, what is it that goes cuhchoo?

LEF' DE OLE HOSS OUT

'Tween de gusts ob de win'
Comes a winner an' a soun'
Like de trampin' ob hoofs on de col', col' groun'.
Ise 'spicious ob a staun,
An' dere ain't no doubt
But somebody's gone an' lef' de ole hoss out.

I 'membah now de sheep
Come a-runnin' to de shed,
An' de ole bossie cow was a-standin' in 'er bed,
An' de chickens on de roos';
But what was I 'bout
When I done went to bed an' lef' de ole hoss out?

Well, I mus'n lay heah
An' hab de col' win's blow—
When de keyhole whistles dar's gwine ter come snow—
I jes' oughter 'rise
An' wandah right out,
An' cuah myself ob leebin' de ole hoss out.

Mah goodness, what er night!
Wondah what's dat soun'?
Dat's de ole hoss, jes' comin' on de boun'.
Ise ashame ob myse'f!
Well, what was I 'bout,
Ter go ter bed ter res' an' leebe de ole hoss out?

EC-A-LEC-TIC FITS

I'm only jes' a little chap
 An' my ma says I'm frail ;
I got ec-a-lec-tic fits,
 'At's why I'm lookin' pale.
Once I had a ague chill
 An' oh, how I did shake
'Cause aunty wouldn't give me any
 Jelly tarts an' cake.

Once when it was summer
 Once, an' nice an' warm, nen me
An' Jennie went in our back yard
 'Nd climbed a cherry tree.
An' she ate all the cherries, too,
 An' fed me all the pits,
An' my ma said 'at's jes' what give
 Me ec-a-lec-tic fits.

When bad girls comes to our house
 They mustn't scare me, too,
An' romp up quick against me
 Like they's playin' peek-a-boo,
Cause ma she'll say right out to 'em :
 " See here, now children, quit !
I guess you'll have to run right home
 'Fore Wadsworth has a fit."

EC-A-LEC-TIC FITS

Sometime I'll be strong 'nd well
An' big like Uncle Dan,
An' he'll be little jes' like me,
When I'm a grown-up man,
'Nd nen I won't be scarin' people
Almost out their wits,
'Cause 'en I won't go round a havin'
Ec-a-lec-tic fits.

When you see me turnin' blue
An' when my hands gits cold,
Don't you git afraid o' that.
But jes' you git a hold
Of me, an' rub my hands
'Nd rub my neck 'nd head
Till I "come out"—'cause if you don't
I'm li'ble to git dead.

I wouldn't care if I should die
'Nd go up there, would you?—
Where the sun is peekin' 'round
The clouds, up where it's blue?
'Cause there they ain't no worry
An' they's lots o' little bits
Of fellers, an' they's none of 'em
Got ec-a-lec-tic fits.

KEEP HIM A BABY

Keep him a baby as long as you can ;
Bless him, the dear little, cute, cunning man !
Keep him in dresses, and apron, and bib ;
Rock him to sleep in his own little crib.

Keep him a baby enjoying his toys—
Soon enough he will be one of the boys ;
Keep him a baby and keep him at home—
Manhood will very soon cause him to roam.

Ofttimes at night when he wakes for a frolic,
Don't get excited—it's only the colic ;
When he has reason your slumbers to mar,
Get up and walk with him, just as you are.

First it is Winslow and then it is squills,
Then you will find one or two doctor's bills,
Though he's a trouble at times, it is true,
When he grows up he will take care of you.

KEEP HIM A BABY

Keep him a baby still taking his nap,
Don't you chastise him for any mishap ;
When he falls off of a sofa or chair,
Don't stop his crying by calling a bear.

Keep him a baby and do as I say :
Take him to ride in his carriage each day ;
Show him the bossie, the horse and the bow-wow ;
Soon you will hear him say "moo !" to the cow.

Keep him a baby : he'll soon be a boy,
Then he'll forsake every plaything and toy ;
Keep him a baby—he'll soon be a man,
Keep him a baby as long as you can.

Out de clinkers down below.
So yo' bettah drap yo' sinnin',
Kase ol' Satan he's a grinnin',
Bime-by de big saxaphone
An shuahly gwine to blow.

Cose yo's laffin now,
Bekase it's mighty still.
Bime-by she gwine ter shake
Wid a pow'ful heavy chill;
An' de ole bell in de towah
'S gwine to fall down wid de powah,
An' de millstones go dancin'
Roun' de bottom ob de mill.

Some day dar's gwine ter open
De bigges' kin' of crack,
An' dis hyar coon's a hopin'
Dat de Lord won't hol' yo' back,
'Speshly Jaspah Jones McClellan,
Yo's de one Ise bin a tellin'
'Bont de use of bad profanity
An' also plug terbac.

'Fore de debbil shake
De furnace down agin,
Yo' bettah ask de Lord
To rid yo' ob yo' sin,
Kase when Satan wants some fuel
To warm up his brimstone gruel
He'll ope de furnace do'
An' de draf' 'll suck yo' in.

Doan be loafin' now
An' shootin' craps aroun' ;
Yo' bettah be a tryin' on
De white probashion gown ;
Fus' yo' know all ob a sudden
Mos' yo' coons 'll take to scuddin'
An' dose cushun feet
Dey'll nevah tech de groun'.

THE PESSIMIST

Nothing to do but work,
 Nothing to eat but food,
Nothing to wear but clothes
 To keep one from going nude.

Nothing to breathe but air
 Quick as a flash 'tis gone ;
Nowhere to fall but off,
 Nowhere to stand but on.

Nothing to comb but hair,
 Nowhere to sleep but in bed,
Nothing to weep but tears,
 Nothing to bury but dead.

Nothing to sing but songs,
 Ah, well, alas ! alack !
Nowhere to go but out,
 Nowhere to come but back.

Nothing to see but sights,
 Nothing to quench but thirst,
Nothing to have but what we've got ;
 Thus thro' life we are cursed.

Nothing to strike but a gait ;
 Everything moves that goes.
Nothing at all but common sense
 Can ever withstand these woes.

BUT THEN

John Oswald McGuffin he wanted to die
 'Nd bring his career to an end ;
Of course, well—he didn't say nothin' to me—
 But that's what he told every friend.
So one afternoon he went down to the pier,
'Nd folks saw him actin' most terribly queer ;
He prayed 'nd he sung, put his hand up to cough
An' every one thought he was a-goin to jump off—
 But he didn't.
 He may jump tomorrer
 Mornin' at ten—
 Said he was goin to Try it again—
 But then.

John Oswald he said he was tired of the earth—
 Of its turmoil and struggle and strife—
'Nd he made up his mind a long, long time ago
 He was just bound t' take his own life ;
'Nd the very next time 'at he started to shave,
Determined to die, he was goin' t' be brave ;
So he stood up 'nd flourished the knife in despair
'Nd every one thought 'at he'd kill himself there—
 But he didn't.
 He says 'at tomorrer
 Mornin' at ten
 He has a notion to
 Try it again—
 But then.

He went and bought arsenic, bought paris green.

'Nd cobalt 'nd all kinds of stuff

'Nd he took great delight in leaving it 'round—

Of course that was done for a bluff—

Then he rigged up his room with a horrible thing,

That would blow his head off by pullin' a string.

Folks heard the explosion—rushed up—on his bed

John Oswald was lyin'. They whispered, "He's dead."

But he wasn't.

He riz up 'nd said :

Couldn't say when

He'd fully decide to

Try it again—

But then.

PRESQUE ISLE

How well I remember the day that I spent
On that far away island where all is content ;
When sweet from the woodland, 'midst bramble and brake,
The birds caroled on—it seemed just for our sake.
Oh, where on this orb is a spot that we feel
The rapture of loving as on the Presque Isle.

I laved in her looks and I bathed in her smiles,
Nor thought of the nook where the serpent beguiles ;
I watched the calm glow of her passionate cheek,
As in maidenhood only those blushes can speak.
How I ardently knelt at her feet to reveal,
The love that was born far away on Presque Isle.

When the stars had come out in the clear northern skies
They but beamed on my soul, ah ! less bright than her eyes,

And I turned in despair from the orbs up above
To gaze in the eyes of an angel of love.
Our lips met, Oh ! why should we longer conceal
Our love on that rapturous, star-lit Presque Isle ?

I'm still looking back on that island today,
But my lips they are mute—I have nothing to say,
Except that my soul I claim as my own,
Tho' my soft auburn hair is all scatter'd and strown.
And after each cyclone in silence I kneel
And pray for an earthquake to sink the Presque Isle.

BEULAH LAND

Ober de ribber in Beulah Lan'
De lubly angels in white robes stan' ;
Dey beckon me dar, I kin hyar de ban',
Ober de ribber in Beulah Lan'.

Ober de ribber what sights I see !
Somebody stan's dar a waitin' fer me ;
Stan's on de sho' ob de Jaspah Sea,
A callin' ; he says dars res' fo' me.

Ober de ribber I soon mus' go,
Weary ob waitin fro' all dis woe ;
An' when my journey is ended I know
Dat de Good Shepherd will open de do'.

Ober de ribber my soul takes wing,
De songs ob Zion I hyar 'em sing ;
When tuned to de harps how our voices will ring
Close roun' de frone ob de Hebenly King.

Ober de ribber dey beckon to me,
De ribber dat flows to de Jaspah Sea ;
Ober de ribber you all mus' know,
Dat de good shepherd will open de do'.

Den we'll shout glory an' praise 'im an' sing
'Long up de golden streets, how it will ring ;
Close to de Massa fo'evah we'll stan',
Ober de ribber in Beulah Lan'.

THE BLACKBIRD AND THE THRUSH

"It's my idee," a blackbird said,
As he sat in a mulberry bush,
"It's my idee it seems to me
I can warble as well as a thrush."

"Let 'er go, let 'er go," said a carrion crow,
As he swung on an old clothes-line,
"For I won't budge, but I'll act as judge
And the winner I'll ask to dine."

In a minor key the thrush sang he,
Way up in an elm remote,
And twice and thrice like paradise
Songs welled from the warbler's throat.

Then a rooster he, in his usual glee,
Flew up on the barnyard fence,
And he crowed and he crowed ; then he said :
"I'll be blowed
If that isn't simply immense."

Then the blackbird, well, he listened a spell
And began in garrulous run,
But he wasn't admired, for a farmer tired—
Well, he up and fired a gun.

Then the black crow said, as he rested his head :
"I want to go somewhere and die."
And a young cock-a-too said : "I do too,"
And a parrot said : "So do I."

DE SPRING-HOUSE

Down to de spring-house am whar I long to wandah—
De ole do' a creakin' as hit swings to en fro,
Down to de spring-house standin' ovah yondah,
Standin' ovah yondah in de long time ago.

Down by de spring-house de lilacs am a bloomin';
Holly-hocks a noddin' an' honey suckles thick.
Down by de spring-house I listen to de lowin';
An' reckon de ole brindle cow am wadin' up de creek.

Down by de spring-house once agin I'm walkin';
Yellah cream 'pon de shuf, kaint let it be.
Down in de spring-house no use in talkin'—
Col' greens en hog-jole 's good enuff fo' me.

Down to de spring-house missus comes a callin'
Ol' hound's a balikin an' massa 'gins ter shout.
Down in de spring-house what a caterwaulin—
Jais sort a waitin' fo' de niggah to come out.

Down by de spring-house blackbirds eat de cherry.
Wasp suck de honeysuckle, clovah feed de bee.
Down in de spring-house niggah nevah worry—
Down in de spring-house am good enuff fo' me.

UNDER OBLIGATIONS

I notice dat de weddah's rathah chilsome, mo' or less,
An' I notice dat de back-log so't o' crackles, Lor' bress?—
Ole Crimp is on de tuhupike an' de frost is on de faince
An' Sant' Claus 'll soon be hyah, so chillun, hab saince.

I seed 'im on Ole Massa's ruff; twar jais de oddah night,
Wid a span ob balky reindyahs, bofe um dapple gray an' white.
Dey war hitched to a monsus lookin' alligatah sleigh,
An' filled wid gifts fo' de chillun, piled ebery which un way.

Hab any ob yo' chillun bin a sinnin' ?
Or a sassin' yo' suppearyahs, or a grinnin' ?
Yo' bettah read yo' Bible 'bout ole Moses an' de laws,
Foh yo's undah obligashuns to Ole Santa Claus.

How many ob yo' chillun bin a tendin' to de church ?
An' done made up yo' minds to leabe de debbil in de lurch,
Hab yo' tended up to Sunday-school, an' listen'd to yo'
teachah ?
Does yo' always drap a nickel in to try an' spote yo' preachah ?

Am yo' wilful to yo' faddah or yo' muddah ?
Does yuh pestervate yo' sistah or yo' bruddah ?
Yo' bettah change yo' tacticks cause, well, jess because
Yo's undah obligashuns now to Ole Santa Claus.

Kin yo' ansuah all dese questions dat yo' pastah has perferd?
Ef yo' kaint, yo' bettah hang yo' haid en nevah say a word;
Foh yo' pastah sort ob reckons dat de debbil's bin bo'n in yuh
An' when Ole Santa Claus comes roun' he'll surely be agin yo'.

So, ef any ob yo' chillun bin a sinnin',
Or a sassin' yo' suppearyahs, or a grinnin',
Yo' bettah read yo' Bible, don't yo' hesitate or pause,
Kase yo's undah obligashuns to Ole Santa Claus.

CLEOPATRA AND CHARMIAN

I'm dying, yes, Charmian, dying,
 I'm dying to stroll out awhile.
This eve we'll go down to the Cydnus
 And scare up some old crocodile.

I swear by the Priests of Serapis
 This Egypt just gives me the blues,
It seems that my only companions
 Are crocodiles, storks, and emus.

I'm so melancholy and stupid,
 Sweet maid should I drop in a doze,
I pray you loosen my sandals
 And pull off these long silken hose.

Bring me the asp in the lattice box
 That Tony caught down in the Nile.
Pinch up his tail with a small carob stick
 And then let him wiggle awhile.

Last night my pet lion, Augustus,
 Was howling for something to eat—
Why under the sun don't they feed him
 That slave with the pigeon-toed feet?

Today you must polish those idols,
 The buhl-headed idols—and more,
Just see that those lubberly eunuchs
 Don't spit on my porphyry floor.

You're getting infernally lazy
 And looking so peeked and white.
See here, miss ! Does that jay from Memphis
 Think you can sit up every night?

I vow, I believe you're weak-minded,
Your brain seems to be in a whirl,
Next week I'll go down to Miletus
And look up a new hired girl.

Go bring me my old mother hubbard,
And also those Indian balms ;
Come, let us go down in the gardens
And bask 'neath those lovely dhoom palms.

Bring also my pearl brooch and necklace,
Dear, lazy old Æthiope girl !
Some wine of Ramesian vintage
I'll mix up a nectar of pearl.

We'll drink to Osiris and Isis
The great Sphinx of Theban renown,
Old Cheops, the father of pyramids,
The Ptolemies, then to the crown.

By Pthah ! let us try the new poison
On some of our new Roman stock.
I'd like to tip over some pyramid
And give the old mummies a shock.

What's that ? Who seeks for admission ?
Was that a fog horn I heard blow ?
Can Tony be nearing the castle ?
Just look, Charmion dear, ere you go.

Have something good, dearie, for breakfast,
But you know what pleases me most—
Some pelican's eggs, à la Cairo,
And fried phenicopters on toast.

Remember about rising early,
Get up with the wagtail at four.
So smother the glim in the hallway,
And lock up the back kitchen door.

PINKEY

I reckon wintah's goin',
It's rainin' 'sted of snowin'.
I tale yo' dars no knowin'
Jes' whar dis chile 'll go.

Might go to Souf Kyarlina,
An summah dar wid Dinah,
I guess I'd cut a shine
Among de coons I know.

Den dars my good ol' massa
Way down in Tallahassie.
He ain't fo'got dis sassie
Chile dat used to sing.

De why he call me "Pinkey"
Was de colluh ob my crinky
Frock I wore so shrinky
When I use to dance de fling.

We gals out in de moonshine
Would dance de good ol' coonjine,
An' dreckly den we'd soon fin'
Dat missus heah de noise.

Den mighty quick she'd hurry
Down dar all in a flurry,
An' fin' dis huckleberry
A dancin' fo' de boys.

An' den de way she'd take me,
An' land ob goodness, shake me !
Ol' missus raised an' brake me,
No wondah Ise so good.

Ol' missus used to tell me
 Dat like de cows she'd bell me,
 Or else she'd done go sell me
 To Yankees, Ise so rude.

I 'membah Rasmus Biddle,
 As black as auntie's griddle ;
 He used to play de fiddle,
 An' feet ! umh ! a holy show.

An' dar was Luke an' Jaspah,
 Lucindy, Jude an' Caspah,
 Dat ignominyus, 'aspah-
 Ratin', orn'ry lookin' moke.

Dat ol' cush-footed, cramp-back,
 Dat essence ob ol' lamp-black,
 Dat inside yih ! yih ! ob a smokestack,
 Us gals we called 'im smoke.

An' dat new coon f'om Cuba,
 Dat used to play de tuba,
 He used to pat de juba,
 While I dance de Mobile buck.

De ole banjo was a-pingin'
 An' dat pink frock a swingin',
 Dis yaller chile a wingin',
 Jes' hoein' down fo' luck.

I ain't no Mobile niggah,
 I cut no Mobile figgah,
 But when yo' pull de triggah
 Yo' pestah dese heah shoes.

An' when de fiddle's scrapin',
 Dars too much music scapin',
 Ise got to git to shapin'
 Myself or git de blues.

Yo' wondah dat Ise weary
 Fro all dese days so dreary,
 Dar ain't one fing dat's cheery
 'Bout Shcawgo life fo' me.

Dat's de raison dat Ise goin',
 Jes' as soon 'zit quits a-snowin',
 An' de'col' win' stops a-blowin',
 Back to ol' Kyarlina State.

Dar de ivy am a creepin';
 Whar my po' ol' muddah's sleepin',
 Missus—'scuse me kase Ise weepin'
 Seems as if I couldn't wait.

THE BUNG TOWN CANAL.

Do you remember Tom, Billy, and Sal,
The old swimmin' days in the Bungtown canal?
The big millin' logs fast asleep on its banks,
We used to jump off of and cut up odd pranks
In our tropical costume. We used to make Sal
Go home when we swum in the Bung Town Canal.

I never'll forget it an' 'tween you an' me,
You 'member the place where the mill uster be?
We had a long spring-board out there'n we'd scud
An' jist go head foremost clean inter the mud.
I may fergit some things, but I never shall Fergit them old times 'round the Bung Town Canal.

Nobody need never say nothin' to me
'Bout the Blue Danube River er banks of the Dee,
They can't perduce sights like some 'at I've seen
Crawlin' up on its banks and off in the green
Old marsh where the scum and malarier are
'S the pizenest things in the world out in there.

Me an' John Price caught the gol blamedest thing,
With six legs 'n four fins 'n a yaller-jack sting,
Two eyes in its head an' two horns in its tail,
An' it carried a shell on its back like a snail,
So we tuck it home an' skeer'd mother an' Sal
'Ith what we fished out of the Bung Town Canal.

Once they's a stranger 'at jest took a drink
From the Bung Town Canal, an' course he didn't think
What he was doin', an' after awhile
He went an' turned yellor, as yellor as bile,
So doctors all went to perscribin' fer him,
Makin' his chances a blamed sight more slim.

What they all said was that he had a snake
Way down in his stummick an' he better take
One or two whiskeys 'fore eatin' each meal,
'Then in a week er two mebbe he'd feel
Better. So natcherly he tuck to drink,
Usin' rye whiskey 'bout three months, I think.

Course havin' snakes in the stummick is tough,
But snakes is a-knowin' when they've got enough.
So gittin' dissatisfied, most of 'em fled,
Some hid in his boots and some got in his bed.
I argied the pint 'at he never'd a died
If they'd a jest let 'em be on the inside.

We buried him there where the low grasses creep,
In a bed of pond-lilies we put him to sleep,
Where the meddy-larks sing and the cry of the loon,
An' the rice-hen is singin' a dolefuller tune.
We left him alone, after writin' his gal
Concernin' his death an' the Bung Town Canal.

Oh, them barefooted days an' the spot where I'd lay
An' jest steeped my hide in the glory o' day,
A-hearin' the bulrushes whisper an' sigh,
An' watchin' the shadder-clouds hurryin' by.
How I long to go back there, with some old-time pal,
'N dive off once agin in the Bung Town Canal.

DE MASSA

De Massa to de shepa'd say :
Go call de sheep dat's gone astray.
De night is col' I hear de win',
A shakin 'gin my winder blin';
Dars some po' sheep dat's gone astray.
Go call 'em in, Cu-dey ! Cu-dey !
Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! Cu-dey !

De shepa'd said de night was col',
But all de sheep was in de fol'.
" I called 'em in at set ob sun ;
Dey all come runnin' sep de one
Dat's always wanderin' away,
An' never minds de call Cu-dey !
Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! "

De massa then went fro de gloom,
Ob medder fields. De autumn moon
Was dodgin' roun' behin' a cloud,
But still he goes a callin' loud,
For dat one sheep dat's gone astray.
I hyar him call, " Cu-dey ! Cu-dey !
Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! "

He listens long to hyar de soun',
F'om some ole wedder pokin' roun',
Dat's gone to res' down in de dell,
An' wanderin' roun' has los' his bell ;
Tho' softer now so far away,
I hyar him call, " Cu-dey ! Cu-dey !
Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! "

But furdler on in gloom an' damp,
Upon de border ob de swamp ;
So chill'd by dew an' autumn win's,
Right dar de po' los' sheep he fin's ;
He lifts him up, an leads de way,
Vit I hyar massa's echo say,
" Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! Cu-dey !
Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! "

An' all night long de win' an' rains,
An' hail against de winder panes,
In dreams I hyar de massa call
De wanderin' sheep, he knows 'em all.
He pints de road, an' shows de way
An' ever stan's an' calls " Cu-dey !
Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! Cu-dey !
Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! Cu-dey ! "

COONIE IN DE HOLLER

Coonie in de holler hidin' hin' de logs,
Little picaninies ketchin' pollywogs,
Banjo am a ping ping pingin' ont a tune,
Ebery ting am lubly as a day in June.

Ping, ping, ping, banjo am a pingin',
Sing, sing, sing, yaller gals a singin',
Wing, wing, wing, ain't dat wingin' fine?
De same ole step in de ole coonjine.

Cindy in de kitchen tryin' out de lard,
Jusy in de do'way, rakin' up de yard,
Jaspah am a pickin' on de ole banjo
An' he am a singin' "Ise gwine home to Clo."

Coonie in de holler done gone up a tree,
An' he am a hidin' whar no one can see.
But he know his bizness nuff not to come down,
Kase he know him likely meet dat frocious houn'.

Coonie in de holler, hark, I hyar a gun,
Git a goin' Rasmus, Jube git up an' run,
All de foolish niggahs runnin' till dey pant,
Bet my bottom dollah Rube has treed an ant.

"Pee, wee, wee," pce wees in de cedars,
Bluebirds come, robins an de leaders,
Cudder-rudder-rung, bullfrog just now sung,
Hyar dat distant thundah; guess dat spring am sprung.

AFTER WEIDENFELLER GOES

It's goin' to be blamed lonesome after Weidenfeller goes;
Catastrofies are follerin' right along an' no one knows
What's goin' to happen next, for banks are bustin' every day
An' now we hear the woeful news that Weid's agoin' away.

Weid agoin' ! think o' that ! not goin' up above,
Nor out upon Midway Plaisance, that spot the boys all love,
Or goin' to Californy or out to Idaho
But yet they say he's goin' away ; that's why we're filled with woe.

O' course he ain't goin to die or anything like that,
He's simply got his sal'ry raised and kind o' "standin' pat"
With—I believe it's with the boss ; I'm blamed if I can tell ;
But I know Weid's goin' away—know that mighty well.

I know the Club'll miss 'im lots ; so all the fellers here
Are gathered 'round the festal board tonight to give 'im cheer,
An' send 'im off in proper shape, which only goes to show
We're mighty glad he's prosperin' but sad to see 'im go.

I've stood upon the wild sea banks, afar in Michigan,
Just left its sandy shores this morn to be here once again
Back here to meet our dear old friend, with heart chock full of woe,
An' don't that show I'm mournin', too, cause Weid has got to go?

God bless 'im and let fortune smile and cheer 'im on each day,
Suckers and fame still tag 'im on an' get right in his way,
So if the Club 'pears lonesome when the frosts are comin' on,
We'll sit around an' say it's jest cause Weidenfeller's gone.

ZACCHEUS

Zacchens clim' up de sycamo' tree,
 A-waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come,
Den' 'e looked up de road jes' fur as he could see,
 A-waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come.
Oh, Zacchens knew he could done see de bes',
Ef 'e clim' up de tree he could ovallook de press,
En 'haps 'e could sleep en git a leetle res',
 While a waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come.
Waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come along come,
 A waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come,
 He could ovallook de press,
 An' 'e git a leetle res'
While a-waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come.

Ole Zaccheus set on de bow ob de tree
 Waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come,
A long time ago in de ole Judee,
 A-waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come.
Along about noontime en ebbery ting clear,
Word went around dat de Lo'd was drawin' near,
En de press begun to jostle en de multitude to cheer
 While a-waitin' fo' de Lo'd ter come.
Waitin' fo' de good Lo'd to come along come,
 A-waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come.
 When de Lo'd was drawin' near,
 How de folks begun to cheer,
While a-waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come.

When de Lo'd come along 'e said to Zach,
 Waitin' fo' de Lo'd ter come,
" Ise pow'ful glad yo's heah, I am, fo' a fac',"
 Waitin' fo' de Lo'd ter come.
" So come right down hyah outen dat tree,
 Yo's jes' de berry pusson Ise lookin' fo' ter see.

Dis day I abide at de house wid thee,"
 Waitin' fo' de Lo'd ter come.
 Waitin' fo' de Lo'd ter come elong come,
 A-waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come,
 De republican an' sinnah,
 Took de Lo'd home to dinnah,
 Waitin fo' de Lo'd ter come.

Now Zaccheus he was an Israelite,
 Waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come.
 En he lived in a mansion way out o' sight
 While waitin' fo' de Lo'd ter come.
 En Zach knew de Lo'd knew he had stuff
 En he wondah'd ef de Lo'd was dun makin' 'im a bluff.
 But de Lo'd went home wid Zach shuah enuff,
 A-waitin' fo' de Lo'd ter come.
 Waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come elong come,
 A-waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come—
 Oh, Zaccheus de sinnah,
 Took de good Lo'd to dinnah—
 A-waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come.

Ole Zaccheus he was a shuah nuff sinnah,
 Waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come,
 An' back in dem days was a seven time winner,
 A-waitin' fo' de Lo'd ter come.
 But de Lo'd told Zach he mus' gib to de po'
 En neber let a beggah man pass his do'.
 Den Zach he said: "I will Lo'd sho',"
 While a-waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come.
 Waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come elong come.
 A-waitin fo' de good Lo'd ter come,
 So gib me de po'
 Dat pass by yo' do',
 While a-waitin' fo' de good Lo'd ter come.

A RETROSPECTION

Ise a sittin' neaf de ole magnolia tree
So't o' thinkin' ob de times dat used to be,
 In de huckleberry patches
 When we heah'd the steamah Natchez,
An' de white folks all 'ud hustle down to see.
Dar was Missy Elenor an' Julie Ann,
An' Haidee Lee, who lived wid Uncle Dan.
 But she went and run'd away,
 An' de folks set up an' say
Dat she 'loped off wid a wicked no'then man.

Po' Cindy she is daid, and Aunty Mary
Doan do nuffin' now but sate aroun' en worry ;
 En ebery night she say
 She 'specks to go next day,
But her disease ain' one dat 'pears to hurry.
De doctors seems es ef dey hadn't made out
What 'tis dat makes ole aunty look so played out ;
 But de time she will consume
 Turnin' Heaven into gloom
Will make de Lo'd repent when she's done laid out.

Missie Elenor she married Col Paxton,
An' de scandal 'bout de colonel don't be axin',
 But dey say, I undalistan',
 Dat he done shot off his han',
Jes' to keep from jinin' good ole Stonewall Jackson.
An' Julie Ann dat talk like she was hoarse,
Dat huzzy she's done gone an' got divorce,
 Dey lived in Chickamanga
 Till she moved up to Chicagah,
Kase tings is mighty cheap up dar ob course.

Yo' 'membah Haidee Lee? I mndahstan'
Dat she's trabin' roun' de country wid a band,
 An' I heah she sort o' prances
 Wid a skirt an' thinks she dances,
Did you evah, evah, goodness land!
Wid de 'vantages dey used to hab en' see
How dem girls was all turned out. Now can it be Dat cussidness is sown,
 Or is it in de bone?
Well, hit mus' be in de family, seems to me.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Mavourneen, swate isle, I am lonely widout thee,
I sigh for your hills an' your calm sky so blue ;
Shure I niver had cause one shmall moment to doubt thee,
An' whin I'm not thinkin' I'm dhreamin' of you.
So lads whin I call ye's, come sing your "Come all ye's,"
Ah ! here's to ould Ireland, byes, ivery toime ;
Och, coleens, be aisy, your dhrivin' me crazy.
What day of our country is one half so foine ?

St. Patrick's the day, shure, it was in the mornin',
An' oh ! how it graded me, Mavourneen, to part ;
But I left ye's as I left me mother, a mournin'
An' kissin' the shamrock she placed near me heart.
I'm sorry I left ye's to cross the deep water,
For the game that I've played wid misfortune's a draw ;
But don't ye be ailin', I'll soon be a sailin'
Away to the isle of swate "Erin go Bragh."

Then lend me the harp and I'll wake "Tipperary,"
Sing "By Kilarney" wid "Noreen Maureen ;"
'The shamrock I'm pressin', an' while I'm confessin'
I'm praisin' St. Patrick an' "wearin' the green."
So lads whin I call ye's, come sing your "Come all ye's,"
Ah ! here's to ould Ireland, byes, ivery toime ;
Och, coleens, be aisy, your dhrivin' me crazy.
What day of our country is one half so foine ?

INJUN SUMMAH

De Injun summah's comin',
De bees is all froo hummin',
De watah-mellon thumbin'

Has passed long time ago.
De ole clock in de kitchen
Is tickin' mos' bewitchin',
While Gabe is out unhitchin'
Just kase it looks like snow.

De lambs is runnin' over
De aftahmath ob clovah,
An' yondah comes de drovah ;
I 'spec he's got a yahn
About de ole bell-weddah
Dat's wand'rin roun' de meddah
An' wants ter git togeddah
Wid de sheep up roun' de bahh.

Some days de sun is shinin',
Some days de win' is whinin',
An' den Ise after fin'in'
Big pippins on de groun' ;
De birds hab all stopped singin',
Wil' geese is soufward wingin',
Jes' look an' see 'em stringin'
Whar warmah weddah's foun'.

De yaller cat is nappin'
En layin' roun' an' gappin' ;
Bimeby he will be slappin'
Some tom-cat on de wall.
Dar's a mellah, yellah glory
Kase de yeah is ol' an' ho'ry,
An' a melancholy story
So't o' hangin' roun' us all.

'CAUSE IT'S GITTIN' SPRING

The medder lark is pipin' forth a sweeter note to me,
And I hear the pewees over yonder in the cedar tree ;
The popple leaves is quiv'rin' 'cause the wind is in the west,
And the robin's 'round a hookin' straws to build hisself a nes';
The blackbird he's a flashin' up the crimson on his wing.

What's the reason ?

Oh, the reason's 'cause it's gittin' spring.

The old man's got the rhenmatiz an' stiff as he can be ;
Why it don't git settled weather's moah'n he can see ?
But when it clears off splendid, then he's feared the crops is lost
An' he reckons jest a little wind 'ud keep away the frost.
The kitchen door is open ; I can hear Elmiry sing.

What's the reason ?

Oh, the reason's 'cause it's gittin' spring.

The air is kind o' soft'nin' and you think it's goin' to storm ;
Sometimes it's kind o' chilly, then again it comes off warm ;
An' jest when it's the stillest you can hear the bullfrog's note,
An' it 'pears as if he wonder'd how the frost got in his throat.
The ducks and geese are riotous, an' strainin' hard to sing.

What's the reason ?

Oh, the reason's cause it's gittin' spring.

DECORATE DE CABIN

Ise done gwine ter decorate mah cabin,
Wid all de brick-er-brack Ise been a habbin',
 Den Ise boun' ter hunt er wife,
 'Deed I is, yo' bet yo' life.
Dar's nuffin like a woman roun' er blabbin'.

Ise gwine ter hang a coon skin on de do',
En hab some Turkey rugs roun' on de flo';
 An' I nevah yet hab seen,
 De ole cabin look ser clean,
Ef yo' peep in dar some time yo'll fin' it so.

We's gwine ter 'range de pictures on de wall—
Yo' talk about a fine reception hall—
 Yo' ought to see de flowahs,
 En de chromios in ours,
W'y de white man's house ain' in de thing at all.

THE ULTIMATUM

"You can decorate your office with a thousand gilded signs,
And have upholstered furniture in quaint antique designs ;
Have the latest patent telephone where you can yell 'Hello !'
But," said she, "I just made up my mind that typewriter must go."

"You can stay down at the office, as you have done, after hours;
And, if you are partial to bouquets, I'll furnish you with flowers.
You can spring the old club story when you come home late,
you know,
But, remember, I've made up my mind that typewriter must go."

"You can let your book-keepers lay off and see a game of ball;
The office-boy can leave at noon or not show up at all.
There—what is this upon your coat? It isn't mine I know.
I think I know a thing or two—that typewriter shall go."

DREAMY DAYS

Oh ! the dreamy days of youth,
In appearance how uncouth,
As we waded through the frog ponds and
 The ditches,
With big patches on each knee,
And where they hadn't ought to be.
Oh ! the days when one suspender
 Held our breeches.

Oh ! the dreamy days of yore,
And the slippery cellar door.
Oh ! that cherry tree whose fruit we oft
 Were testing.
Then we'd wait till after tea,
When we'd sing with doleful glee.
Oh ! how often mother made it
 Interesting.

WHEN THE STAGE GITS IN

Pap 'll git a letter, 'nd Uncle Zed a book,
'Nd Aunty Jane expects er magazine ;
 'Nd school 'll all be out,
 'Nd the children run 'nd shout,
While a playin' "one-old-cat " out on the green.
 An' the men 'at's in the grocery store
 'll come outside 'nd stand
'Nd talk, 'nd look around 'nd grin ;
 Fer the folks down at the postoffice
 A-standin' all around
Are happy when the stage comes in.

Ma has done the bakin', 'nd made some patty cakes,
'Nd Lizzie has done the sweepin' all alone ;
 An' she's dustin' up the furniture
 'Nd settin' things about,
Cause tomorry we're expectin' Aunt Se'phrone.
 Nan has had 'er hair did up
 In papers all night long ;
'Nd today she's a-frizzin' it agin ;
I bet you any money she's expectin' some one, too,
'At 'll be here when the stage gits in.

When you see the yaller cat begin a-washin' up,
An' 'er hind leg pinte'd over that way, some Folkses allers say it is
 The surest kind o' sign
'At company is liable to come.
'Nd when the parlor's opened a sort o' funny smell
Comes cause the fire's kindled up ag'in,
 We're goin to have a high old time
 'Nd all our relatives
I'll be here when the stage gits in.

THE CULTURED GIRL AGAIN

She was so esthetic and culchud,
Just doted on Wagner and Gluck ;
And claimed that perfection existed
In some foreign English bred duke.

She raved over Browning and Huxley,
And Tyndal, and Darwin, and Taine ;
And talked about Flora and Fauna,
And many things I can't explain.

Of Madame Blavatski, the occult,
Theosophy, art, and then she Spoke of the Cunead Sibyl
And Venms de Med-i-che.

She spoke of the why and the wherefore,
But longed for the whither and whence ;
And she said yclept, yip, yap and yonder
Were used in alliterative sense.

Well I like a fool sat dumfounded,
And wondered what she didn't know.
'Twas so when I bade her good evening,
I thought it in season to go.

I passed her house yesterday evening,
I don't know, but it seems to me,
She was chasing around in the kitchen,
And getting things ready for tea.

I heard her sweet voice calling : " Mother,"
It was then that I felt quite abashed,
For she yelled, " How shall I fix the 'taters,
Fried, lionized, baked, bited, or mashed?"

DE CUSHVILLE HOP

Ise gwine down to de Cushville hop

 An' dar ain' no niggahs gwine ter make me stop ;

Missus gwine to deck me all up in white,

 So watch de step dat Ise gettin' in ter night.

Um-hm, my honey, tain' no use ;

 Um-hm, my honey, turn me loose,

Um-hm, my honey, watch me shine

 When mah foot am a shakin in de ole coonjine.

No black niggahs come foolin' roun' me.

 Ise jes' to look at, anyone can see ;

Ise jes' a orniment, an' I mus' 'fess

 No niggah put 'is ahm roun' mah snow-white dress.

Um-hm, niggah, keep away, understand ?

 Um-hm, niggah, look out fo' yo' hand ;

Ise jes' ter gaze at I must 'fess

 So don't put yo' ahm roun' mah snow-white dress.

Bring out de banjo plunk-plank-pling,

 Watch de motion of mah step an' mah swing ;

Don't yo' pestah me or make me stop

 When I git in motion at de Cushville hop.

Um-hm, niggah, keep away, keep away !

 Um-hm, niggah, not ter day !

Keep away from me kase I done kain't stop :

 Ise jes' caught mah motion fo' de Cushville hop.

GORD ONLY KNOWS

I saw an ole beggar dis mawnin', Lucindy,
De weathah was col' an' bleak an' windy,
An' de fros' took hold
Ob de end ob his nose.
Whar wus he goin' ?
Gord only knows, chile,
Gord only knows.

All he had on was an' ole woolen jacket,
An' pants dat had done seed a mighty ha'd racket.
His shoes war all out,
Kase I saw his toes.
Whar wus he goin' ?
Gord only knows, chile,
Gord only knows.

He said his gran'chilun had turned him away,
Wid nuffin to eat on las' Thanksgibin' Day.
Wid no ovahecoat,
He looked about froze.
Whar was he goin' ?
Gord only knows, chile,
Gord only knows.

He lifted his han's, day was bony an, blue,
An' axed me was dis hyar de main avenue,
Den walked ovah dar
To dose ten'ment rows.
Had he friends in dar ?
Gord only knows, chile,
Gord only knows.

I doan bleb in treatin' a gran'fader so,
Kase some day its comin' right squar back yer know.
An' when we grow ole
An' come to de snows,
Den who'll keer fo' us?
Gord only knows, chile,
Gord only knows.

Gord keeps account ob de sparrers dat fall,
We stan' a-waitin' we soon hyar him call.
Gord brings de wintah,
De rain an' de snows,
Gord makes de win' blow,
But jes' whar it goes,
Gord only knows, chile,
Gord only knows.

JES' TAKE MY ADVICE

Jes' a little sunshine, jes' a little rain,
Jes' a little happiness, jes' a little pain.
Jes' a little verselet sounds mighty nice
'Bout some oddah business ; jes' take my advice.

Jes' a little chicken-coop standin' neah de fence ;
Jes' a little dahkey. too, widout a bit ob sense ;
Jes' a little pressin' by de fahmer on de triggah,
Jes' a little 'splosion, den a perforated niggah.

Jes' a little lazy coon roun' a shootin' craps,
Den a buyin' policies roun' de lottery traps ;
Jes' a little out ob cash, jes' a little stuck ;
Jes' a little hungry, jes' a niggah's luck.

Jes' a little bettin' on de faverite in de race ;
Jes' a little ways behin', workin' hard fo' place ;
Jes' a little money won by dat oddah make.
Jes' a little thing like dat lef' dis dahkey broke.

Jes' a little pressin' on de latch, wid no one in ;
Jes' a little jewelry, jes' a diamond pin ;
Jes' a little sheriff on a niggah's trail.
Jes' sech little tings as dat got dis coon in jail.

PATRIOTISM AND A PENSION

Ole Fo'th ob July
Am mighty close by,
Kase I done smell powdah in de air ;
An' de beatin ob de drums
When de regiment comes
Sort o' 'minds me ob de times in de wah.

I was chief ob a division
Dat furnished de pervision,
An' I done looked wid pride on mah troops ;
I haid em so well drilled
Dat none ob dem got killed—
Ouah bizness was inspectin' chicken coops.

I was shot froo de lip,
An' wounded in de hip,
En fractual'd mo' er less about de haid,
At de trouble roun' I'o't Pickens,
I was skirmagin' for chickens
When mah foot slipt an' I fell off de shaid.

Gen'l Sherman gib us right
To forage mos' de night,
So dat's why Ise trompin' on dis paig.
I was out abductin' salt,
When somebody hollahed "halt !"
An' de fool up an' shot me in de laig.

Jais what I want ter mension
Is, I want increase ob pension,
An' I make mah affidavit fo' de judge
Dat I was in comman'
When a shell bust in mah hand,
An' fo' fohty-seben days I couldn't budge.

I'll stop, en hol' mah peace,
Ef I get a good increase ;
I want mah pension bill increased to five ;
Foh mah lip, en hip, an' hand,
En mah haid, yo' unde'stan',
An' one jes' fo' comin' out alive.

THE OLD MUSICIAN'S FATE

He played so many instruments
A thousand won't express
The number that he handled—why
'Twas mor'n that, I guess ;
An' when he got to playin' hard
We couldn't make 'im stop ;
It seemed he didn't want to rest
Er ever take a drop.
He'd look around fer things to play,
Then walk up to the viol
As if he'd suddenly forgot,
An' touch up that awhile.
The mandolin was his best holt—
He jest took the diploma
With his Philomela, Tierra
Del Fuego, La Paloma.
He played an upright pianner forte,
A concert grand, or square,
And he imitated Paddy
Roofski, all accept the hair.
You should have heard him when he played
Upon an old trombone
That song about the moments when
One wants to be alone.
He played upon an Aeolian,
Told us how he used to roam
An' play " Little Sally Waters " "
Ten thousand miles from home.
He played a big church organ great,
Played with his hands and feet,

And often played the choir, too.
Oh, it was just a treat.
He played the jewsharp, hit the pipe,
And worked the organette ;
He played not only instruments,
But everyone he met.
He played 'em all ; you should have heard
Him jerk a grewsome tune
And play those eozoic notes
Upon a long bassoon.
He played the soft guitar an' scraped
The tuneful violin ;
Old " number five " was his best holt.
He used to sit and grin,
An' jest ketch up the instruments
One right after another ;
It didn't make no difference,
For one was good as t'other.
Strange instruments—the lyre and lute
And others that he tooted.
You took your choice. He didn't care
Whether he fided or fluted.
He'd rather play 'an anything,
Unless it was to drink,
Because he said it rested 'im
An' gave 'im time to think.
He made some curious instruments
That nobody could play,
And said 'at he would jest about
Surprise us all some day.
And so one time he fetched 'er out,—
Of all the lookin' things,
With harps an' horns attached to 'er
An' run criss-cross with strings.
He brought 'er forth an' sat 'er down
As if he knew his biz,
And when we asked him what it was ?
He answered, " What it is."

We laughed as we were seated 'round ;
I recollect 'twas June ;
It rained that spring, rained all this morn,
And rained that afternoon.
There seemed a touch of magic in
The deftness of his hand ;
A look about his pallid face
We didn't understand.
The instrument we noted much,
It had such curious stringin',
The frets arranged in such a way ;
He'd made it so for singin',
Then touching on a happy theme
That carried us remote,
To sunset lands, for melody
Divine was in each note.
We listened to the lullabies
Till all were silent, stilled,
In memory of the bygone days,
The eyes of all were filled.
Then on to sterner manhood and
Old age. Ah ! how he played !
We saw again life's pathway, too ;
But oh ! how far we'd strayed.
Then on to sunken cheeks we pass,
From life then on to glory.
O song ! O dirge ! O sainted theme !
Sad requiem to life's story.
That pallid look now comes again,
The tremors o'er him creep.
His head falls back. Dead ? No, my friend,
He's simply gone to sleep.

A RECORD F'OM 'WAY BACK

Yo' spouse Ise gwine ter cuh-comb
An' boddah wid dis nag
Ef I low'd he wasn't eval gwinter go?
Why chile, yo' make me tiahed!
Dis ve'y hoss was siahed
By Pokehontas folty yahs ago.

Ise doctahed up his wheezin',
An' done stopped him ob his sneezin';
En pahsley cuahed de spavin on his baik;
Ef he wasn't quite so bulky,
I'd put him 'foah de sulky,
An' lait yo' see his motion on de traik.

'Ceptin' froo de wintah, las' yeah
I haid him out to pastuah;
But de famah said he didn't hab no saince.
Dar's nuffin 'll keep 'im quiet
When he gits down on 'is diet,
An' once 'e eat a whole bahb-wiah faince.

De way I come to buy 'im
Was, de day I come to try 'im
Ise dumb-foundered wid de way he tuk de bit.
An' as I was on mah way baik,
He kerlided wid a hay stack,
An' hi couldn't coax 'is tenshun offen hit.

Yo' notice dat he winks, sah,
He's comin' out de kinks, sah;
An' mine yo' doan go nyah his heels at all,
Kase 'e's nuhvas an' 'e's dangus,
An' speshly so to strangers,
An' hi nevah 'low no pusson 'roun' 'is stall.

He's pow'ful fond ob grazin'
An' his appytite's amazin' ;
Dat's a sho sign dat 'e's got good bottom to 'im.
When I bought 'im 'e's so thin
Dat 'e couldn't ketch 's win',
An' Rasmus, yo' could read a papah thro' 'im.

I tale yo' he's a hummah,
'Low I'll show de folks dis summah,
Kase jes' now he aint feelin' zackly bright,
When he gets 'is second win' sah,
Yo' ought to see him spin, sah,
Why, chile, dat hoss's reckod 's out ob sight.

THANKSGIBBIN IN OLE VIRGINNY

Ter-day's Thanksgibbin',
En good land er libbin',
Go gib de ole hoss er double mess o' co'n.
Ole pot bubble
Possum's in trouble,
An' we's gwine ter feas' upon 'im sho's yo' bo'n.

Nigger wid de nex' straw de jack rabbit ; den
Nigger wid de nex' one he gits de turkey,
But de short straw done draw de little Guinea hen.

Gib 'im off yo' table
Long as yo' is able,
Kase poverty an' hunger may sometime come to yo'.
Darkey wid de long straw he git de possum,
Darkey wid de nex' straw de jack rabbit ; den
Darkey wid de nex' one he git de turkey,
But de short straw done draw de little Guinea hen.
De little speckle' hen,
De little Guinea hen,
De short straw done draw de little Guinea hen.

GRAVE MATTERS

W'en dis ole man comes ter die,
 Death is mos' unsightly ;
Doan' yo' lay me in no rooin
Wid de pull-down curtain gloom ;
'Tain't de place de dead should stay
W'en de spirit's gone away,
 Off ter where hit's brightly.

'Struct de pa'son 'fore he 'gins,
 Tetch the subject tritely ;
Kase hit's gen'ly undahstood
I hain't been so pow'ful good ;
And fo' him ter shout an' groan
'Bout me settin' roum' de frone,
 'Low hit won't look rightly,

W'en de fun'al 'gins ter start,
 Shove mah box in tightly.
'Membah I is in de hearse ;
Yo' am comin', but Ise firs'.
Ef de mo'ners grieve and mope,
So's ter make de hosses lope,
 Keep de team up sprightly.

Lowah me slowly in de grave ;
 Drap de earf down lightly.
Needn't linger long, and, say,
'Spense wid prayer's de better way ;
Don't keer ef nobody sings.
Jes ter know de chu'ch bell rings
 'S gwine ter please me might'ly.

COMIN' CHRISTMAS MORN

I'm goin' to start next Saturday;
It won't take more'n a day
To visit the United States
In my new toboggan sleigh.
I've sent Jack Frost ahead o' me
To sort o' find a road,
So my deers 'll find it easy
'Cause I've got an awful load.

But they've had lots o' exercise,
An' know the way by sight ;
I've speeded them to Baffin's Bay
An' back here 'fore 'twas night.
An' once I drove to Puget's Sound
An' once to Behring Sea ;
I had ter make a trip up there
To get a Christmas tree.

I wish't you all could see my house,
Built out o' cakes o' ice ;
I guess you think it cold inside,
But no, it's awful nice.
All carpeted with sealskin rugs,
An' ermine, mink and sable ;
I'm going to keep it furnished so
As long as I am able.

COMIN' CHRISTMAS MORN'

An' no gomphobers in the north
Can steal 'round unawares,
Because my castle's guarded by
Two great big polar bears.
So if a burglar man should come
An' try to break into it
They'ud squeeze his life out in a jif,
I've taught 'em how to do it.

Just right around behind my house
Is where I keep the toys,
'At I am comin' south'ard with
Fer all good girls an' boys.
My big cold storage warehouse stands
Right by a frozen tarn
An' right along aside o' it
I have my reindeer's barn.

So never mind, they're both piled full
Of everything on earth,
With Christmas gifts till you can't rest,
I don't know what they're worth.
An' four big sea dogs set outside
Two walruses, a seal
That knows so much if you'd come nigh
He'd be the first to squeal.

The purtiest sight you ever saw,
'S when things is lit up nights—
You know we don't have gas up here,
But use the Northern Lights.
An' forth from every icicle
A dazzle spreads away
That turns the hull big frozen zone
Into one mighty day.

From where I live I'd have you know,
It's truth upon my soul,
I don't have very far to go
To see the big North Pole,

Where Uncle Sam has pinned his flag,
There's where the cold wind pipes,
And flaunts the emblem of the brave,
The proud old stars and stripes.

I'm coming children, coming, yes,
You ought to see my sleigh,
And hear the tinkle, tinkle, as
I speed along the way,
Through forests bare, o'er snowy plains.
As sure as you are born,
Old Santa Claus is coming and
Will be here Christmas morn.

LEGEND OF THE ST. JOSEPH

There's a place, 'pon my soul,
Called the "Old Devil's Hole,"
By the Chippewa chief, Black Otter,
Who when business was damp
Went into his camp,
And filled up with fierce fire water.

Then over the river
Over the river
He called to his squaw, Maumee,
"Go get my canoe,
And you may come too,
And bring little Walle-wo-ge."

So off to the river
They all flew the ground,
"Black Otter" as brave as could be,
And the little pappoose—
He couldn't get loose—
Was strapped to the back of Maumee.

They floated till dark,
When the wolf's weird bark
Frightened the wits of Maumee ;
So she loosened the sack,
Tied fast to her back,
That contained little Walle-wo-ge.

“ Black Otter ” bent low
And reached for his bow,
When the boat tipped up on its side
And in fell he, with his squaw Maumee ;
And the boat set free, with Walle-wo-ge,
Sped swiftly along with the tide.

Down the swift river’s tide
The pappoose took a ride ;
The canoe shot along like a rocket,
But he lay there as snug
As a bug in a rug;
Or an old woolen glove in a pocket.

On, on, out to sea,
Drifted Walle-wo-ge,
With his face pointed up to the skies ;
And history says,
Which is true, more or less,
That the gray sea gulls pecked out his eyes.

Black Otter was drowned
And never was found ;
But they say that old Squaw Maumee
Waded back thro’ the damp
Of the marsh to the camp
In search of her Walle-wo-ge.

Came back thro’ the swale,
And the rain and the hail,
By the side of the waters so blue,
In search of her baby,
To pick him up, may be,
I wish this would all come out true.

Her spirit distressed,
She beat on her breast,
For the poor old squaw’s grief knew no bound;
But Monets so swift,
Bore her off in a skiff,
To the land of the famed hunting ground.

LEGEND OF THE ST. JOSEPH

On the ninth of November
I hope you'll remember,
A phantom one plainly can see
Walk down from the hole,
In search of the soul
Of poor little Walle-wo-ge.

Now, this is the legend
Of this old-time region,
And the tale of the squaw Manmee,
Likewise old Black Otter,
Who fell in the water,
And poor little Walle-wo-ge.

LITTLE JUDE

Po' little Jude, why, doan' yo' know
Dat little chile? A yeah ago
Her muddah died. I reckon now
'Twas jais las' spring Ise tellin' yo'
'Bout little Jude.

Po' little waif indeed she war ;
An' how she cried, jes' out de crib
Dat baby war an' her muddah died.
Could walk an' run an' jabbah some,
Dat little Jude. Hit make me cry,
Tale yo' lit do, jes' when I tink
'Bout little Jude,

De fun'al day she war asleep,
Tuckt in de crib, dat little chile
Had on her bib—dat orfin Jude.
De mo'ners come ; an' when dey pray
Dat little Jude waked up an' say :
“ Mammie ! Mammie ! ” jes' dat way.
Nobody know jes' what to do
Wid little Jude.

She cry so ha'd dey lif' her down ;
F'om room to room she toddled roun'
A-cryin' : “ Mammie ! come an' take
Yo' little Judy dat's awake—
Yo' little Judy's wide awake.”
My lan' ! de teahs come in my eyes !
But when she foun' her own high chail,
Dat had been hid an' pushed it up
'Long side ob whah her muddah was,
An' den climbed up an' pounded on
De coffin-lid, I couldn't stan'
De awful grief—de sobs an' teahs—
An' little Jude, a-lookin' roun'
Foh one dat now at las' she's foun'—
Why, chile I kain't—I nevah will
Fo'get dat day.

DOWN IN WALHALLALAH

I put flowers on Leeda's grave
Down in Walhallalah ;
Flowers that in the spring she gave,
Asking me to cherish, save,
Still I placed them on her grave
Down in Walhallalah.

Tender rains came down at night,
Down in Walhallalah
Took the flowers I had pressed
Tenderly to earth and blessed ;
They returned, ah ! newly dressed,
Down in Walhallalah.

But one flower I had pressed
Down in Walhallalah,
Did not find its way up through
With the violets so blue
And the marigolds that grew
Down in Walhallalah.

Ah ! farewell for evermore ;
Farewell, Walhallalah,
Tender rains from ashen skies
Never more can ope the eyes
Of the angelhood that lies
Cold in Walhallalah.

Withered hopes, how like my soul,
Down in Walhallalah,
Never more shall rise and bloom ;
Such the fate of love. The doom
Of all is but the tombed gloom
Down in Walhallalah.
